The public may not be ready for the Government ownership of railroads, but neither is it quite prepared forrailroad ownership of the Government.

Down in Texas a woman is running for Congress, and when she is elected she says she is going to show up the grafters. If she waits until then the grafters will never be shown up. Why not begin to make an exhibition of them right away?

A divorced woman in Ottawa was fined by a magistrate in that city for kissing her child when she saw it on the street. Her husband made the charge of assault against her, and it was upheld by the judicial Dogberry. The working of the law in the hands of freak judges and magistrates can be made a fearful and a wonderful thing.

In a suit for injuries inflicted a Vermont court decided that a man's leg is not his personal property, although it could not very well deny that it was in his personal possession. It held that the leg had been made an exhibit, and was the property of the court for use by either side in the case. Perhaps this ruling will also justify either side in pulling it.

A matrimonial club of young men in Illinois has been formed to protect its members against undesirable wives. All frivolous young women will be black-listed. Now the shrewd readers of human nature are watching out for the fun when one solitary frivolous young woman with nothing to recommend her but a fluffy blonde pompadour and a peaches-and-cream skin comes along and proceeds to disrupt the whole club.

In New York a school of instruction in prizefighting has been opened. A city paper—moved to reflection no doubt by the prominence and frequency of domestic brawl in its city—hails the new institution as a boon to women. "Why should women be compelled to carry on their domestic warfare with pokers and brooms?" asks the city paper. "A better course is open to them. Many men would be better husbands if their wives were graduated from prizefighting schools."

So it seems that at last women's rights are to be recognized. The woman's right delivered in the form of a lulu bird, a Mary Ann, an upper cut, a flash to the point of the jaw, or other forms that science may suggest, is to put wife upon a plane with husband and make her a self-protecting and satisfaction-demanding citizen. The married man who "won't go home till morning" must go home in fighting trim or expect to be Gansized by the partner of his sorrows and joys, to the end that he will become a better man a better husband. But would it not be better to open a school of moral suasion or arbitration than a school of pugilistic science, if the adjustment of domestic difficulties is the object in view? A brave man might obey a Sandowesque spouse, but a braver one might, in ring vernacular, sidestep a lifetime mill with a trained athlete.

The Baltimore Sun, the organ of Governor Warfield, in speaking of the appointment of Wm. H. Adkins to succeed the late Judge Martin, says:

"It is something of a new departure in Maryland politics. It is to be expected of a Democratic Governor that he will appoint members of his own party to office, and this has been the constant practice here and elsewhere. If the man who holds the appointing power can select a member of his own party who is as suitable and competent as any other available person, no one can justly complain if the appointments are confined to the party."

There is not anything strange in the appointment to us as the Governor has been selecting appointees right along to represent HIS party.

In another paragraph the Sun cites the political habit of Mr. Adkins', thus:

"The contest in Talbot was between a gentleman who, it is claimed, has been very regular in his Democracy and one who has not been so regular—that is to say, Mr. Adkins. Each of these gentlemen had his strong supporters among the leading Democrats of the circuit. It was represented to Governor Warfield by those who opposed Mr. Adkins that that gentleman has been in the habit of voting for Republicans from time to time, and that he had voted against Mr. Warfield when he was candidate for Governor in 1903."

Aren't these about the qualifications required of the Warfield brand f Democrats?

The straight Prohibition vote in Maine was under a thousand, while the Socialist candidate for Governor received less than 1,400 votes. Evidently, the people are beginning to realize the absurdity of side movements designed to waste their votes.

A German surgeon claims that he has discovered a method of transplanting organs from one body to another. Money is powerful, and the dyspeptic Rockefeller may now be able to swap stomachs with some robust young fellow whose digestive apparatus is pie-proof.

Marlin
REPEATING SHOT GUN
NEW MODEL №17

Here is the cheapest good gun yet made. By the omission of the take down feature we have been able to greatly reduce the cost of production and at the same time have kept the gun up to the famous high Marlin standard of strength, safety and durability. Notice the clean simplicity of this gun. The workmanship and finish are perfect. The weight is only 7 pounds. The full choke barrels are especially bored for smokeless as well as black powder and so chambered that 2¾ inch or 2⅝ inch shells may be used. Several improvements in the operating parts make it the easiest, most reliable and best working gun in existence. We are glad to make it possible for every lover of guns and bird shooting to get this high grade repeating shot gun at so low a price.

KIDNEY DISEASES CAUSE ONE-THIRD OF THE TOTAL DEATHS.

When the Kidneys fail to perform their functions properly by not straining out the poisonous waste matter from the blood as it passes through them, the poisons are carried by the circulation to every part of the body, deranging the different organs. This causes heart trouble, stomach trouble, sluggish liver and a host of other ills, all due to deranged Kidneys.

CURED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Mr. Robert G. Burke, Elnora, Saratoga Co., N. Y., writes:—I am glad to have an opportunity of telling what magnificent results I have had from using FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE after having tried other advertised medicines and several physicians. Before I began it I had to get up from 12 to 20 times each night to relieve my bladder. I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired that I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. In fact, I was so badly used up that I had given up hope of living when I was urged by a friend to try FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. One 50-cent bottle worked wonders, and before I had taken the third bottle the superfluous flesh had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Kidney trouble. My friends were surprised that I was cured, as they all thought I was going to die. Every few days some one comes from miles away to learn the name of the wonderful medicine that cured me of Bright's Disease, and not one that has tried it has failed to be benefitted.
