

all about me and our pleasant-walks before many days rolls around for it is the way of the world.

I certainly felt strange coming from Church on Sunday, I did not meet or see one familiar face amid the many who thronged in and around the Cathedral.
I really felt sad for I used to know many who visited there and it seems such a short time since I have been away. I felt like the wanderer of old, a stranger in the City of my Nativty. I remember brass buttons and that Sunday, but I do not suppose he had any idea of interviewing, and I thought you were not interested much yourself about it.) I spent Thursday going Day with my Sister, but I had such a severe cold, (and far more than a week) and on Thursday I did not leave my room all day.

some friends called in the Evening, but feeling so badly I did not see them. I hope you spent yours more pleasantly, but I presume you did for looking over the Balt. Sun, I saw accounts of having quite a gay time in your City, exciting James speeches prizes &c, a Grand Parade on Market-space, if I was there I should certainly have passed through the Blinds, I suppose Miss Annie W. is enjoying herself, she seems to turn life easy I trust she may never know to the reverse. I hope you will enjoy yourself on your hunting excursion. I dread to hear of a friend going on such accidents so very often occurs.
I wish you a safe return home.
I shall be pleased to see you when you come to our City. do you intend coming soon, not caring much for the amusements of the day and as I never go or force in them, I can tell you
