

National Hotel,
F. Demey & Co.

Washington, D. C., 22^d April 1873.

Dear Sir:

I leave here to-morrow
for Cairo Ill., will be pleased to hear from you at that place.
Never again will I venture eastward, until a thorough change has taken place in my affairs, temporal. Would have written Anacosty previous to my departure, had time permitted.

Respectfully to all, if at your leisure, write me.

Yours &c.
W. J. Holland.

Yours truly
Anacosty Ind.
