SATURDAY, April 11, 1908.

Although the Democratic National Convention meets only every four years, it seems almost Bryanannual.

The plan of the Republicans is to come out for tariff reform, go in on tariff reform and turn down tariff reform.

That theory that the North Pole is shifting ought to bring comfort to Peary. All he has to do is to go around to the other side and wait for it.

The straw vote will probably be scarce during this year's politics. All the straw is in the women's hats. Have you seen them? Or, rather, can you miss seeing them?

A Boston man is offering $50 for a treatment that will cure a parrot of profanity. If he gets it, there are a lot of women who will be anxious to try it on their husbands.

There are certainly some mean men in the world. One of them makes bold to write a letter saying a dollar is enough to pay for any woman's Easter hat. What do you think of that?

Considering that Congress has just made the largest appropriation ever given to the Weather Bureau, we suggest that we are not at all satisfied with winter lingering in the lap of spring.

In the local option news from the West the politicians note with much joy that Chicago and Denver are still wet. So the attendance at the national conventions will be up to the usual figures.

According to Dr. Geo. J. Preston, the alienist, "All medical experts can be divided into three classes—liars, unmitigated liars and experts." Does he mean these to be positive, comparative and superlative?

A Washington paper recently published a long editorial in high terms commending the American bar. But the bar mentioned was not the same kind that was recently sold cheaply, with stock and fixtures, over in Delaware.

A woman in a New York town hospital, ill with nervous prostration and melancholia, had her mind completely restored when her husband bought her a new spring hat. Husbands of the town are probably trying to have the case suppressed on the hospital records and bribing the doctors and nurses to keep the new cure quiet.

A bill has been passed in the Ohio legislature abolishing school fraternities in the state and providing for a fine for school officials permitting them and suspension of pupils who join them. College rowdyism and the occasional tragedies accompanying it have evidently got to the point in Ohio where the laws can't stand if the school faculties can.

It is rumored that at a committee meeting two congressmen had a fist fight the other day. With Senators Armond and Williams setting the pace, Congressman Helfin carelessly adding a pistol on a street car, several other little differences, and this fist fight, it looks as if the legislative body at Washington is trying to keep in harmony with the strenuosity of the President.

About 200 hat trimmers in a Con... on strike be... wanted them ... strike like this ...ssful, because ... every time by ...eminine influence, high or low, throughout the land. Employes and customers will agree in stigmatizing the men capable of making such a demand as "real mean things," and that settles it in feminine estimation.

The superintendent of the Anti-cruelty Society in New York has come forward to assure the public that there is no real danger from hydrophobia in that city, citing as a fact that in the last fourteen years the employes of the society had been bitten 15,000 times and not one case of rabies had resulted. This testimony is worth weight, in view of the fact that the hydrophobia scare is about the easiest one started and is capable of fatal mischief when it spreads in an excited community.

...or meat has been raised ... There appears to be no limit in the game the Beef Trust plays.

Ice will probably be higher this summer. The Ice Trust is to be investigated again, and somebody must pay the freight. The most convenient burden-bearer usually found in such cases is the poor, dear public.

A Connecticut man explains that his stealing was due entirely to the devil, but he never complained of his satanic majesty until he was caught. Blaming things on your partner is practiced in more places than the land of wooden nutmegs.

Of course there is no law to prevent Emma Goldman from staying in this country as long as she likes, because she is an American citizen. But, really, the great mass of her fellow-citizens would be glad if Emma should take her clothes and go.

A New York paper has published a list of the world's twenty-five noted men, which includes Shakespeare, Julius Cæsar and Napoleon Bonaparte, but fails to include Mr. Roosevelt. Somebody is in danger of being severely chastised with the Big Stick.

The mayor of Paterson, N. J., says that in future that city is going to deal with anarchy as with smallpox—keep it from spreading. There is really no good reason why contagious civic diseases should not be dealt with in the same manner which has proved so effective with physical epidemics.

A town in Pennsylvania has decided to issue marriage licenses for nothing. However, this does not represent as much economy as might be supposed at first thought, as matrimony is something like an automobile, in that the greatest expense is not always incurred at the beginning—it costs something to keep it up.

If It's Neuralgia

and those sharp, shooting, agonizing pains drive you almost crazy, take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and get relief. They drive out the pain by their soothing effect upon the nerves. When taken as directed they are harmless, and leave no bad after-effects. That's the reason they are so popular with all who use them. Your druggist can tell you what others in your locality think of them.

"I do positively think that Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are the best medicine ever put upon the market. I find them so restful and soothing, and without any bad after-effects. I have suffered with neuralgia so that my system would just ache and quiver, and I cannot take opiates; but I can take these tablets, and they always relieve me. No one that suffers with neuralgia need fear to take them as I know they will not form a habit, for if there was any opiate in them I could not take them. Just one in the morning when I feel bad, and I can do my work all day."
MRS. W. H. BURKETT, Macon, Ga.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.

STOVES FOR COOKING HEATING

"HARDWARE" FARMING IMPLEMENTS

Just a Word about Stoves!

If Mr. Groundhog is an authority, there will be something doing for several weeks more with the coal bin and wood pile.

In the first place, when you buy a stove you want one that will meet your requirements.

If it is for heating or cooking you want a stove that will give you the maximum heat with the minimum supply of coal or wood.

This is where we have the stove proposition well in hand and, if you will call, we'll give you some good arguments why you should buy from us if you want to save money and get quality.
