

I may stay a very late hour might if I stop on the road and must with some delay when I expect they will be. I do not get home until after midnight which is very often the case with most of our young fellows I have started after midnight and rode fifteen or sixteen miles to get home. That night I will pay my dues for our frolicking in the lap of rest. I must now close giving my respects to your mother sisters and brother and to all my friends good to your friend

With my love for I do want to hear from you so much
