Dance At Armory For Infantile Paralysis

The 1946 fund-raising appeal of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will continue through January 31 and is the 13th annual campaign in the war against infantile paralysis, Queen Anne's County Campaign Director Francis E. Thomas said in announcing the county's plans for participation.

"Last year," Mr. Thomas said, "Americans sustained the worst epidemic of infantile paralysis ever to this nation in the history of the disease. More than 190,000 people were stricken and many more of 1945's victims will require medical care and treatment for a long period of time.

"We do not know what is in store for this county or any other county of the nation in 1946. But it is up to all of us who value the health and welfare of America's children to prepare now for any eventuality," Mr. Thomas added.

This year Headquarters Detachment of the Maryland State Guard under the direction of Sydney Gadd will sponsor a March of Dimes Dance in the Centreville Armory on the President's birthday, Wednesday, January 30th. All proceeds of the dance will be given to the Infantile Paralysis Fund. Mrs. Vachel Downes is the chairman of the dance for the Infantile Paralysis Fund.

One-half of the money raised will remain in the county for local use. In 1945 presence of a local fund enabled children of this county to start treatment in fighting the disease.

Funds in the local treasury are now depleted and treatment is still going on for the local children. Mr. Thomas urges countains to give liberally to replenish the fund so these children may have treatment and others who might fall victims to the dreaded disease may have the opportunity to receive care.

The Younger Set

Say: "What goes between a certain blonde from Buzzardsville and one of the Tom Cats of Grasonville?

Has Carville Tolson joined "The Lonely Hearts Club" or did he break down and go see a certain brownette from Stevensville?

Honestly, a regular foursome are going to night school. Wonder if they're taking a course in Romance?

Really: A certain person is going to get sick if they don't stop smoking cigars!

Did you Know: King and Thompson's store on the outskirts of Grasonville, is a regular meeting place for a group of Grasonville girls and Kent Island boys. Maybe they ought to put up a sign: "Groceries, Meats and Romance".

It seems Joe Tyler's carrying a torch for a brown haired cutie down Dominion way. The torch is hot, so watch out fellows, you might get burnt!

Were glad at this writing that Edna Tolson is much better and her many friends are glad to see her home for a while.

Poor Marion Quimby is singing to Jane Chance "Is You Is or Is You Ain't my Baby"? Well Jane?

Why does Dorothy Jones say she doesn't have a beau—yet—her eyes light up every time E. B. comes in sight?

Girls Only—There's three love wolves around—J. C.—B. S.—D. W. Better wach out girls, they might huff and puff and blow your door down!
