My dear Sue,

Long long & welcome

I received some time ago I was glad to get an answer, so soon for I remember how dilatory you once was in writing I hope you are getting over it now. I do remember well Sue & the many happy times we have had together and we are going to have some more together and that very soon for Mag, Sister L and myself are coming on to O^h on a visit we will start in the course of a week or ten days so look out for us.

I am sorry to hear Annie
