The Most Remarkable Occurrences On Board the Ship Phnix of New Bedford on a Whaleing Voyage to the South Pacific Ocean

May the 8 D 1822 took our anchor and got underweigh But the wind Comeing out at the Southward we came to a Small distance above the Light house
The next Day we got underweigh and proceeded to Sea. Nothing remarkable happened until the 14 when we Lowered the Boats and got two Small Whales which made us 25 Barrels of oil
May the 31 Saw Land which we supposed to be Pico one of the western Islands we then shaped our Course for the Cape De Verd Islands and on the 13 of June Saw the Island of Bonavista and the next Day ran down to the Isl of Mayo and our Boat went on Shore and got a Supply of hogs goats and fowls 18d 38 Mhz 1f7208448 wz hd 1 9mll 54w 48 B410d J40 whsch 3 G47 B57 38 30489 18d hzp7 38 J40 E O h450d During the night we ran Down to St. Jago and in the Morning we were off Port Praya and our Boat went in to the harbour to an American Brigg that was there and put Some Letters on Board
