

Annapolis March 14th 71.

Dear Will,

I received your note last evening, was very glad to hear from you, that you were well, we feared you were sick, and had heard you were 'quarantined'. So thought perhaps the 'pice' had gotten you in trouble. am glad our fears are groundless and that you liked the afore mentioned 'pice'.

Yes, we saw our friend, Guestin on Saturday eve'g. he was in very fine spirits and talk.

Miss Mullan has returned, and brought a friend
