

shall treat as one. Have you sailed on Miss Annie, or do you visit there? I thought maybe you could tell me, what kind of a looking young lady Miss Gautier is! I must call on Miss Annie soon, as I have a little information for her.

I was quarantined last Saturday, on account of not paying sufficient attention to my Astronomy and Navigation so that was the only reason I did not come out, I was afraid to French out, as there are so many on the watch nowadays.

I have not heard from home for a week, Mag. was there right sick, and I miss her long letters so much; she was always sure to send me a nice long letter every Saturday night, and it seems so odd not to get any now.

We had our second dress parade yesterday, but the dress was miserable in the extreme; the Band have been supplied with new instruments this week, and the music is more attractive than usual, but no so martial in its tones.

Will Irvins did not get in the yard on Saturday evening until near 12 P.M.; I think he must be trying to cut Frankie out; there may be a fight yet, in that direction, but I trust it will not be serious. Miss. Clayton was in the yard yesterday, and I never felt so much like fainting, when I saw
