

hear of anything to beat that? Have you seen her dear Osmu since I left?
All join me in sending love and hoping your ma is better. Write soon and tell me when we may expect Nan - we will take no apology, it is just as easy for her to come now as ever. By the way, I came near forgetting it. Miss R. tells R. tells an outright if she says "this or that something was wrong etc. &c." with Nan nor Trace said one word by which she could discern anything wrong.
It was Guertin's big mouth that had to tell everything. Remember me to all inquiring friends. I beg you to be as patient as possible with all mistakes, and not criticise the poor efforts of Your loving little friend Mathilde.

Mathilde

Lilli Lilli

llllll

Lilli O'Reilly