

coming to Washington. We expected you all down to Nellie's wedding thought they change that some of you came, you did not. even write and let us know. we thought - certainly Johnny would come if the rest did not.

Tell Nan I want to see her and have some fun with her it would be nice if Will could come down from Baltimore while we are down. He ^{sent} me a very pretty anchor to wear in my hat.

How is Cousin Jane. Aunt Mary often talks about her and thinks it strange she does not write to her.

We have given up all hopes of your ever coming to Washington. we have invited you so often and you have never excused your selves of the invitation.

Hoping to hear from you very soon I remain your affectionate Cousin

Lannie.

P.S. We will not come until we hear from you and then will let you know on what day we are coming. all send love.
Lannie.
