APOLLO'S FOUNT.

THE CHOICE OF A HUSBAND.

BY A LADY.

A MAN that's neither high nor low
In party nor in stature,
No rake, no rattle, and no beau,
But not unus'd to flatter.

Let him not be a learned fool
That nods o'er musty books,
That eats, and drinks, and lives by rule,
And weighs our words and looks.

Let him be easy, free, and gay,
Of dancing never tir'd,
Have always something smart to say,
Yet silent when requir'd.

Let him be rich, not covetous,
Nor generous to excess,
Willing that I should keep the purse,
And please myself in dress.

A little courage let him have,
From insults to protect me,
Provided that he's not so brave
To dare to contradict me.

BARK.

THE subscriber wants, this spring, one hundred cords of good Spanish, water, black or white oak BARK. He will give from seven to nine dollars per cord, or at any rate he will give one dollar more than the Baltimore price, if brought to this city, any one having that article to dispose of, so that it can be brought to Annapolis by water, and finds it inconvenient to peal or deliver it, he will get it himself, and give a good price in proportion.

JOHN HYDE.

Annapolis, March 1 (8) 1808. 13

Those persons who have the above article to dispose of, will send their letters to the subscriber as soon as possible.

Queen's-Town and Baltimore PACKETS.

THE subscriber returns his sincere acknowledgments for the favors he has received, and begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he has purchased, and will commence running, the well known fast sailing, and very commodious Sloop JEFFERSON, (formerly a French Town and Baltimore Packet,) on the second Wednesday in March.

The superior accommodations of this vessel, having sixteen births, the short distance between this and the city of Baltimore, will, he trusts, claim a preference for this route; and he pledges himself to give every dispatch and attention, which an undertaking of this kind requires.

The Jefferson will leave Queen's-Town precisely at nine o'clock, every Wednesday morning, and the wharf at Baltimore, the same hour on Saturdays.

The former Packet EXPERIMENT, will run from Queen's-Town as a Grain Boat, or for the accommodation of his friends, on any other day. A Stage will leave Easton and Centreville, every Wednesday morning, half after five o'clock, and arrive at Queen's-Town before nine; and leave Queen's Town every Saturday evening, after the arrival of the Packets, for Easton and Centreville.

The legislature of the State of Maryland having incorporated the BALTIMORE FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, with a capital of FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, for the purpose of insuring buildings and every kind of Personal Property from Loss or Damage by Fire, as well as Insurance on Lives—The number of shares authorised by law being all subscribed with avidity, the directors feel a particular satisfaction, in offering to to their fellow citizens, throughout the U. States, the means of security against that kind of loss which frequently in an unexpected moment, involves in destruction the earnings of a life of industry and frugality, and reduces the independent and affluent together, with their families, to poverty and distress. To provide an additional guard against calamities of this nature, has been the primary motive of the institution: and the Directors engage to conduct its concerns with a fairnerss, candour and liberality which will justly entitle it to the confidence and patronage of the public.

III. Goods held in trust or on commission, are to be declared as such; otherwise the policy will not extend to cover such property.

IV. Every policy of insurance, made by this company, shall be sealed with its seal, signed by the president and attested by the secretary; and the person for whose interest the insurance is made, must be declared and named therein; nor can any policy or interest therein be assigned but by consent of the company, expressed by endorsment made thereon.

VIII. In case any difference shall arise, touching any loss or damage, it may be submitted to the judgment of arbitrators, indifferently chosen, whose award in writing shall be binding on the parties. And when any loss or damage shall happen, the Company shall pay for the same in sixty days after the loss shall have been ascertained and proved, without allowance of discount, fees or any deduction whatever.

IX. Insurance may be made for seven years by paying the premium for six years, and for a less number than seven, a reasonable discount will be allowed.
