ffeb: 24: 1678

1679

I Thomas Haylings of Talbot County Carpenter doth hereby first Committ my soule to god & my body to ye earth from whence it came to be buri in a decent manner according to ye discretion of my Exr: to be buried in Christian manner & god & hereby make this my last will & testament: god hereby will & bequeath unto my loving friend John Chase all my tobacco every where & all my working tools & chest and my gray gelding & gray Mondhorse & god hearty will & bequeath unto Rebecca Chase my fellowbed & Covering & bolster & pillow & one hundred Acres of Land Called ye Adventure lying at Rodd Creek in Chester River & one bay Mare & god hereby will & bequeath unto Richard Chase one gray Mare branded with my one brand TH & figures of fours over head & one hundred Acres of Land Called ye Bachelours hope lying on ye south side of Chester River at ye head of ye fishing Creek & god hereby will & bequeath unto Mary Chase one gray Mare branded as beforesaid & a colt & gelding & doe affirm & declare that if either of those that halt Land should dye before ye other that then ye longest liver is to take all & if both of ye above landed children should dye before ye father that then he shall possess both of their estates & so I rest in hopes of salvation committing my soule to my Creator

primis

Thomas Hailings

Signed in ye presence of us
James Crosby
Rob: Murphy
Richard Ellwood
his John E Gratto
marke

This day came before me Robert Murphy Richard Ellwood & John Gratto & by vertue of a Comm:on to me in that behalfe directed took their Corporall Oathes, that they saw ye within named Thomas Haylings signe ye within written Will

may 25: 1679

sworne before me William Courtney

Rob: Murphy
Richard ⊕ Ellwood
his
John E Gratto
marke

In the Name of God Amen The last Will & testament of George Aldrigg I being sick & weake in body yet in perfect memory. Committing my soule into ye handes of ye Almighty & my body unto ye Earth for a decent burriall & god will & bequeath all such my temporall estate ye which it hath pleased god to bestow on me in this wise god will & bequeath as follows

Imprimis

I Will & bequeath unto my two sonns Benjamon Aldrig & George Aldrig ye hole foate of Land ye which I now dwell upon after & my wife Ann Aldrigg & decease ye whole devident of Land being three hundred & fifty Acres of Land for to be equally devided between my two sonnes as aforesaide