Notice is hereby given,

THAT I intend to petition to the judges of Dorchester county court, or some one of them, for the benefit of an act of assembly, passed at November session, 1805, entitled, "an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and of the several supplements thereto, to release me from debts which I am unable to pay.

THOMAS STEVENS.
New Market, Dorchester county, May 10, 1808. 8

Sixteen dollars reward.

RUN away from the subscriber about the first of April last, a negro woman named SAL, sometimes calls herself Sal Bordley—She is of a yellowish complexion, stoops much in her shoulders, about five feet four or five inches high, and well made. It is likely she is lurking in the neighbourhood of St. Michael's, or Terry Neck, or may have got to Baltimore, where she has a sister by the name of Eve Williams, somewhere on the Point. Any person apprehending and securing said woman, so that I get her again, shall receive the above reward, paid by

JOHN COUNCELL.
Talbot county, May 24, 1808. 3

Six Cents Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on the seventh instant, an apprentice lad named Philip Herring, eighteen years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, light complexion, has a down look when spoken to; had on good country made clothes. Whoever brings home said lad shall receive the above reward.

JAMES TOWERS.
Caroline county, May 24, 1808. 3q

Take notice.

WAS committed to the jail of Frederick county, Maryland, on the 20th day of April last, as a runaway, a negro man who calls himself John Roman; he appears to be about 29 years of age, about five feet five or six inches high, well made, very black, and has a smiling countenance: His clothing when committed, was as follows—a blue cloth coat and pantaloons, a striped cotton waistcoat, an oznaburg shirt, a pair of black woollen stockings, and one pair of shoes, all of which are pretty well worn; by trade, as he says, a blacksmith and gunsmith; he has a small scar between his eyes, and says he belongs to Bennett Taylor, of Jefferson county, Virginia, within six miles of Charlestown, on the water of Bullskin, near the place that empties into the Shanandoah. The owner is requested to come and release him, otherwise he will be sold for his prison fees, agreeably to law.

GEORGE CREAGER, jun.
Sheriff of Frederick county, Md.
May 13—17, 1808. 8

Notice.

THE subscriber hereby gives notice, that he intends to make application to Queen-Ann's county court, at their next October term thereof, or to some one of the judges of the said court, after two months from this date, for the benefit of an act of assembly passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, entitled, "an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and of the supplements thereto.

JOHN R. GILES.
May 24, 1808. 8

Ran away from the subscriber,

ON the 12th instant, a mulatto slave called JIM, calls himself JAMES BIRD, about 45 years of age, 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high; had on a blue sailor's jacket and trowsers, usually wears rings in his ears, has a rupture and a small piece out of one of his nostrils. It is probable that he may be lurking about the city, as he has a wife at Mr. Mananier's, on Howard's Hill. I will give the following reward for apprehending and delivering him to me, viz: Ten dollars if taken in the city, twenty dollars if taken more than twenty miles from it, and if taken out of this state, fifty dollars, and all reasonable charges.

Forty dollars reward.

RAN away on Wednesday night, the 18th of May, instant, from Doctor William H. Bordley, living in Queen-Ann's county, (Maryland,) near Centreville, a hired negro fellow, the property of the subscriber, about nineteen years of age, yellow complected, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, spare built, speaks fast and stammering at times; he has been afflicted with a yawish like breaking out, and I expect scars will appear on his legs and thighs, and may be on his body, and knots on his head, if not declined by time, from an affray with his brother—Had on and took with him a white kersey jacket and trowsers, brown ticklenburg shirt and trowsers, a yellow round robin, one blue striped waistcoat, two pair pantaloons, one of which is broad striped dimity, the other olive cord—one furred hat, and pair of fine shoes; he may have other clothing, more or less, by changing, &c. Whoever takes up & secures said negro in jail, so that we get him again safe, shall have twenty dollars reward, if in this state; if out of this state, thirty dollars; but if taken in or about Philadelphia, or in the Jerseys, the above reward, and reasonable charges if bro't home to the subscriber, living in Talbot county, near the Head of Wye River, and delivered into the custody of Mr. John W. Bordley, living in the same place (to be paid by me) Given under my hand, May 24, 1808.
