

169 W Lombard St
Baltimore Md
(Dec 17th 1871)

Better the way, better the deed, hope that a day will hold good in this case.
This had been a misper-day, it has had both its disappointments & pleasures for me, The first thing, today when it was hardly light I went to the Steamer Georgetown expecting to meet a lady friend from home, but was disappointed, the snow storm prevented her coming I was right much disappointed, I will look for her on Thursday - which will soon come, when the week once begins - After my return I wrote two letters which