

will be most kindly felt by me yet its a rule I have adopted not to let pleasure come in conflict with business.

By the way I met with Ned Dubois last Sunday.
He says by accident, he learned on Saturday night I was in the City. So Sunday Morning, before I was fixed for Church someone called I had him brought to my room. It proved to be ~~that~~ at first, he did not know me. I found him just the same. Ned, he was where we were boys. So changed from what he was when I last saw him in Annapolis. At night I paid him a visit, and had a delightful time, his wife was very kind also his Mother. I did not leave till Eleven O'clock