Item I give and Bequeath unto my Son Ames Woodward of Annapolis in Maryland aforesaid Merchant the Sum of ten pounds for Mourning Item I give and Bequeath unto my Neices Hannah Woodward and Elizabeth Woodward Daughters of my Brother in Law William Woodward of Reading in the County of Berks Butcher the Sum of five pounds a piece Item I give and Bequeath unto my Nephew William Woodward a Hat Dyer the Sum of ten pounds Item I give and Bequeath unto my Said Sister Elizabeth Ginn and to my Said Sons and Daughters Benjamin Barren and Elizabeth his Wife Mary Holmes and Cornelius Rehowne and Sarah his Wife the Sum of five pounds a piece for Mourning Item I give and Bequeath the Sum of Ten pounds for the putting of William Phipps a poor Ladiveing with me out Apprentice at the Discretion of my Executor Executrix or one of them and I also give and appoint the Sum of ten pounds more to be laid out by and at the Discretion of my Said Executor and Executrix or either of them towards finding the Said William Phipps with Cloaths During the time of his Apprentiship And I also give unto the Said William Phipps the further Sum of ten pounds at the End of his Said Apprentices hip in Case he lives to Serve out the Terme thereof Item I give Devise and Bequeath unto my Said Son William Woodward and my Said Daughters Elizabeth Barren Mary Holmes & Sarah Rehowne all and every my Leasehold Messuages or Tenements and Ground Situate Lying and Being in or near Church Yard Alley in the Burrough of Southwark and all my Estate Right Title Interest Terme of years and time to Come Possession profitt Claime and Demand whatsoever both in Law and Equity of in or to the Same premisses to hold the Same unto my Said Son and Daughters as Tenants in Common and to be Equally Divided Between them and their Respective Executors Administrators & Assigns Subject to the Rents and Covenants Reserved and —

Contained in the Indenture of Lease under which I Claim the Said Premisses — Item I give and Bequeath all my Household Goods and Household Linnen both in Town and Country unto my Said Daughter Mary Holmes But in Case my Son William Woodward Shall Refuse or for three Months after my Decease Shall Neglect to deliver Such part of my Household Goods as shall remain at his House in London to her my Mind and Will is that he Shall pay her the Sum of Twenty pounds in Lieu of the Same and my Said Son shall retain and have Such part of my Said Household Goods as shall remain at his Said House to his own use upon the payment thereof accordingly And I give and Bequeath all my Wearing Apparell and Wearing Linnen unto my Said Daughters Elizabeth Barren Mary Holmes and Sarah Rehowne to be equally Divided between them by my Executor as near as may be. Item I give and Bequeath unto the Said — Joseph Adams and Jonathan Searth the Sum of ten pounds a piece as a Recompence for their Trouble in the Execution of the Trusts aforesaid And — my Mind and Will is and I do direct the Said Legacy of Two hundred pounds herein before by me given to my Said Daughter Elizabeth Barren to be paid into her own proper hands to and for her Sole Seperate and peculiar use and Benefitt Exclusive of her Said Husband and her Receipt for the Same under her hand alone and without the Concurrence of her Said Husband Shall be a good and Sufficient acquittance and Discharge for the Same to my Executor & Executrices Notwithstanding her Said Coverture it being my Mind and Will that the Said Legacy or any part thereof Shall not be Subject or liable to the Debts Engagements Controul Alienation or disposall of her Said Husband and after payment and Satisfaction of all the Debts which Shall be by me owing at the time of my Decease and of all the Legacys by — this my Will given and of the Expences of my funeral and of the Charges of proving this my Will and of the Execution of the Trusts aforesaid relating to the Said one thousand and two hundred pounds I give Devise & Bequeath all the Rest Residue and remainder of my Estate both Real and — personall of what Nature Quality or kind So ever unto my Said Son — William Woodward and to my Said Daughters Elizabeth Barren —