To be Let,

For one, two, or three years, as may be agreed on by the parties,

THAT well improved fertile FARM, whereon William Frazier, deceased, lately lived, lying in Caroline county.

This plantation possesses many advantages. It is beautifully situated upon Choptank River, has good convenient landings for the delivery of its products. Is partly surrounded by fine angle and seine fisheries—It has excellent, extensive pasturage for all kinds and quantity of stock, abounds with a variety of fruit; has two large apple orchards, with outhouses sufficient to secure a large crop; and when well cultivated, it is capable of producing annually from 1000 to 1500 bushels of wheat, four or five hundred barrels of corn, and a good crop of tobacco, oats, flax, &c.

Mrs. Frazier reserves the dwelling-house, carriage-house, garden, and the two lots laying on each side of the garden, as they are now enclosed, with sufficient apples and other fruits for her family's use, and pasturage for her small stock. This farm being large, will require a tenant with a strong force: and it is very desirable that he produce strong testimonials of his honesty, industry, sobriety, and neighbourly disposition.

Those that incline to take this farm, may know the terms by applying to Colonel William Richardson, or Henry Johnson.

Fifty dollars reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Sunday the 24th of July, two negro men, one named JACK, about thirty years of age, and about five feet two or three inches high, of dark complexion, slow of speech when spoken to, and of a surly look. The other named JIM, about five feet ten or eleven inches high, of yellow complexion, and more fiercer spoken; shews his teeth pretty much when spoken to, and of a pleasanter countenance than Jack. The two men are brothers, and their clothing nearly alike; not well to be described, as they took with them several suits; but their summer clothing principally consists of striped cotton.—Whoever takes up said fellows and secures them so that I get them again, shall (if taken out of this county) receive the above reward for each fellow; and if taken in the county, twenty five dollars for each fellow, by me the subscriber, living in Dorchester county, about two miles from the head of Church Creek.

Had on and I suppose took with him a coarse linen shirt and trowsers, old hat and shoes, a furred hat about four dollar price, two coats, one of which a new short blue cloth, the other striped coloured nankeen, an olive pair of pantalets, a waistcoat of Bennett's cord, with blue and yellow narrow stripes, a pair of almost new cossack boots: white shirts, and other clothing not known to me, and he is likely to exchange or sell part of these; I expect he has got a passage from Wye to Baltimore, or has taken the road to Delaware. Any person securing said negro in jail, or brings him home, so that I get him safe again, shall be entitled to the above reward; and if taken out of this state, or on the western shore, and brought home, all reasonable charges shall be added to the above reward, and paid on receipt of said negro, be me,
