

I am debarred the pleasure, by circumstances over which I have no control.

Had my way I am sure we would be neighbors if—I will not discuss the Whorton trial, yet I am of the same Opinion. She is an innocent woman— I did read Mr B's Argument before the jury— it was very able and he did himself much credit.

I hardly expect the appointment reports of. I don't think there is that much good luck in store for me— but rest assured not an hour will pass, after I know it, if I am successful ere the news will be on its way to you— without I am sick or some unforeseen obstacle presents itself—
