APOLLO'S FOUNT.

FOR THE STAR.

"SUPPLICEM AUDI THOMAM, APOLLO."
HOR.

On seeing BRIGADE ORDERS introduced into that corner of the STAR, usually dedicated to APOLLO.

I THINK, Mr. Printer, you've done very wrong,
To place Brigade Orders the muses among;
Those ladies, alarm'd at the martial intrusion,
Are flying from Talbot in dreadful confusion:
Then hasten, my dear sir, (although like their sex,
Their humble adorers they love to perplex;)
Then hasten I pray to acknowledge your fault,
Repentance may yet induce them to halt;
And, perhaps Mr. Smith, if humble you be,
They'll make you, henceforward their "grand Patentee,"
Like Orpheus then you may tickle the HARP,
As humour shall lead, on flat keys or sharp:
But, alas! for your town, for I'm sure ....very soon,
The houses wou'd dance to your soft dulcet tune;
Labor'd stand still; and the bucket suspended,
All ages and sexes together'd be blended;
And old Chaos ensue whenever you play'd—
May such notes enter every Federal head,
Until in the seat of our lov'd JEFFERSON,
WE see, safely plac'd, the great MADISON;
With attention, I am sure, he'll foster fair science,
And COMMERCE, her handmaid, with fondest dalliance.
The friend of the sailor, and old soldier too,
HE mov'd that the DEALER, shou'd give them their due:
But base FECULATION had poison'd the nation,
And turn'd a deaf ear to the source of salvation.
With the blessings of peace, he'll cover our land,
And the Rose's of England will firmly withstand:
He is a staunch friend to th' abus'd Embargo,
From which, as from love, good and evil may flow;
This a brilliance though adds to a name, before great,
And makes all the feds our MADISON hate.
'Tis better than WAR, sure an hundred to one,
And with this assertion, I now will be done;
Wishing success in your prayer to the muses,
Provided you do not repeat such abuses.

To be Let,

For one, two, or three years, as may be agreed on by the parties,

THAT well improved fertile FARM, whereon William Frazier, deceased, lately lived, lying in Caroline county.

This plantation possesses many advantages: It is beautifully situated upon Choptank River, has good convenient landings for the delivery of its products. Is partly surrounded by fine angle and seine fisheries—It has excellent, extensive pasturage for all kinds and quantity of stock, abounds with a variety of fruit; has two large apple orchards, with outhouses sufficient to secure a large crop; and when well cultivated, it is capable of producing annually from 1000 to 1500 bushels of wheat, four or five hundred barrels of corn, and a good crop of tobacco, oats, flax, &c.

Mrs. Frazier reserves the dwelling-house, carriage-house, garden, and the two lots laying on each side of the garden, as they are now enclosed, with sufficient apples and other fruits for her family's use, and pasturage for her small stock. This farm being large, will require a tenant with a strong force: and it is very desirable that he produce strong testimonials of his honesty, industry, sobriety, and neighbourly disposition.

Those that incline to take this farm, may know the terms by applying to Col. William Richardson, or Henry Johnson.
