

12 M. Home:

Dear Mart.

Mrs Bonnell has sent home your book, "Hannah" and I now send it you, with her and my thanks. Is not this a lovely morning? so warm and spring-like - a nice morning for a stroll through the Country. Mrs M. expressed a wish to read this book. if you would like her to do so you can send it to her. you have been so kind I do not want to trouble you ~~any~~ by borrowing it any more. Perhaps I will pass your way, this evening - presume, though, you will be too busy even to think of me, and as I am now taking up your valuable time I must say "Good-bye"
Your friend

24th Feby 72.

Lucien.
