

Dear Mark,

I wonder if you expect to get an answer to your note tonight?

I will be "good" and not disappoint you, if it would be a disappointment.

I was so glad to hear from you, today, but sorry to hear the 'Blue Devils' had taken possession of you. No I did not say "here is another scrawl from old Mark" for I do not call them (your notes) scrawls. Nor do I recollect anything you did which worried me last eve'g. you were very good. How much I would have enjoyed a stroll this lovely morning and is not this a lovely night for a promenade. Nan and I went up to the depot. I looked in the window but did not 'Tape' - you seemed so busy waiting on some persons. aren't you
