

Don't laugh - when I say some what dolefully - and solemnly - that I have thought myself at times a big fool - and I imagine my ideas were seconded by many others - I want to ask you a question - confidentially - did Miss. Annie Mullan - say anything about me - The truth of the matter is this - They acted rather strange at their house with me - and her mother treated me more not nicely than usual - since Miss. Virginia came home - so much so that I had to notice it - I recd in one of Miss. Annie's letters to me she spoke in a strain I did not care to touch on - so I sent back quite a plain spoken and cool reply - in return she sent a request to me - to burn her letters - since when I have neither written nor heard from that quarter.
Miss Clara nor her folks have not returned since - in fact I have not heard anything of them - I see Pol-myer occasionally he seems to be getting on quite well - he has a situation in his uncle's office and is also looking quite well. We had quite a bright collection of youths in our Legislature, without doubt - they deserve the highest encomiums of praise for their
