

their wisdom and far sightedness in all things, on all questions and in all their laws. They certainly deserve another term to try again. How about our Sunday Law? did you ever hear of such a check in the Union's population?
We are approaching the days of snow-ballingism nearer and nearer each day - if we keep on in our present course - we will rival every city in the Union in Vice. I trust that Law will never pass - and I say, let all good citizens rise up and veto all such bills. I have followed your example in letter writing - all are in bed - but it is only 11-1² P.M. and I shall devote still another half-hour to my books.
Give my best Love to all - and send regards to Mart. (I have not had time to answer his letter yet, but his picture is certainly splendid (i) (i) (i) So now trusting your slumber may be sweet, your dreams pleasant and that all your heart's wishes may be granted.
Believe me in subscribing myself

Sincerely Yours

Wm. O. Miller

Remember me to Miss Mollie Pierce.
Wm.