

I will pass over the portion of your letter - where you spoke of my opinion in reference to the straight forwardness of all your acts - My opinion is unaltered - We now come to Spring! (Yes Spring is with us in all its beauties, but it has only been so for a few days - Get the soft balmy air the flowers and the songs of birds tell us, she is here - I too enjoy this season in the Country - And like you would love to be there - Get Jim Contented This is Easter Sunday - And not the bright pretty day, you said it ought to be, but a dark rainy Sunday - I intend out to dine - may go to Church tonight - will not this morning. No, I did not attend service on Good Friday - I worked all day have not been to church this Lent excepting one night during the week.
