The United States of America,

DISTRICT OF MARYLAND, sct.

District Court, March Term, 1809.

WHEREAS an information hath been filed in the District Court of the United States, for Maryland District, by John Stephen, Esquire, attorney for the same, stating, alledging, and propounding that Lemuel P. Spence, esquire, Collector of the Customs for the District of Snow-Hill, between the first day of December, in the year eighteen hundred and seven, and the eighteenth day of March, eighteen hundred and nine, the day of exhibiting the said information at the district of Snow-Hill, in the Maryland district, did seize to the use of the said United States, as forfeited, the sloop called the Sally, her tackle, apparel and furniture, the property of some person or persons to the said attorney unknown, for that between the said first day of December, eighteen hundred and seven, and the said day of exhibiting the information aforesaid, certain goods, wares and merchandize, that is to say, eight hogsheads of sugar, being of foreign growth and manufacture, and subject to the payment of duties imposed by the laws of the United States, were imported into the district of Snow-Hill, in the Maryland district aforesaid, from foreign ports beyond seas, to wit: from the island of Martinico, in the West Indies, in and on board the said sloop called the Sally, and that the said goods wares and merchandize so as aforesaid imported into the United States, in and on board the said sloop, were between the said first day of December, eighteen hundred and seven, and the day of exhibiting the said information, unladen and removed from on board the said sloop called the Sally, at the said port of Snow-Hill, without a permit for that purpose, first had and obtained from the Collector of the said district of Snow-Hill—and further alledging that the value of the said eight hogsheads of sugar, according to the highest market price of the same at the said district of Snow-Hill then, did at the time of said unlading and now does amount to four hundred dollars and upwards, whereby and by virtue of the act of Congress of the United States in such case made and provided, the said sloop called the Sally, her tackle, apparel and furniture hath become forfeited to the said United States, and praying condemnation of the same according to law:—And whereas the judge of the district court for Maryland district, hath ordered and directed Wednesday, the nineteenth day of April next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the same day, for holding a court at the city of Baltimore, for the trial of the premises, agreeably to the prayer of said attorney:—Notice is hereby given—That a District Court will be then and there held for the trial of the premises and the owner or owners, and all persons having any claim or interest therein, are hereby cited to be and appear at the time and place aforesaid, to shew cause (if any they have) why a final determination should not pass.

By order of the Judge, 4

PHILIP MOORE, Clerk.

March 28, 1809. District of Maryland.

Baltimore Fire Insurance COMPANY.

THE President and Directors hereby give notice, that they require from the Stockholders the payment of a third instalment of five dollars on each share of stock of the said company, to be made at the Mechanic's Bank of Baltimore, on the first Monday in June, the 5th day of the month. By order.

THEOPHILUS F. DAUGHERTY, Secretary.

March 14, 1809. 12

The Editors of the Maryland Gazette, the Star, at Easton, and the Frederick-Town Herald, are requested to insert the above notice once a week till the 5th of June, and forward their accounts to the Editor of the Federal Gazette.

In Talbot County Court,

NOVEMBER TERM, 1808.

ON application to the judges of the said county court by petition in writing of Standley Vickers, of Talbot county, praying the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and of the supplementary acts thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said acts, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said acts being annexed to his petition, and the said court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said Stanley Vickars has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland: It is thereupon adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said Stanley Vickars, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Republican Star, printed at Easton, once a week for four weeks successively, within four weeks before the fourth Monday of May next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the Court House of the said county, on Thursday the 25th day of May next, at the hour of eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the said day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said Stanley Vickars then and there complying with the requisites of said acts of assembly.

Test.

JACOB LOOCKERMAN, Clk.

The United States of America,

DISTRICT OF MARYLAND, TO WIT:

District Court, March Term, 1809.

WHEREAS an information hath been filed in the District Court of the United States, in and for Maryland District, by John Stephen, Esquire, attorney for the same, stating, alledging, and propounding, that after the passing of the several acts, of Congress, hereinafter mentioned, viz.—The act entitled, "an act laying an Embargo on all ships and vessels in the ports and harbors of the United States," and the several acts supplementary thereto, and before the exhibition of the said information, to wit, on the eighth day of January, eighteen hundred and nine, at the port of Oxford, in the Oxford District, in the District of Maryland, a certain schooner called the Martha and Susan, the property of some person or persons unknown to said attorney, was then and there a registered vessel of the United States, and had then and there certain goods, wares, and merchandize, on board, the property of some person or persons to the said attorney unknown, with which said goods on board the said schooner, on the said eighth day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and nine, departed from the said port of Oxford, without a clearance or permit, from the collector of the said District of Oxford, contrary to the provisions of the act of Congress, entitled, "An act supplementary to the act, entitled, an act laying an Embargo on all ships and vessels in the ports & harbors of the United States," and further stating, alledging, and propounding that after passing of the said several acts of Congress, and during the continuance of the same, and after they had been received by the Collector of Oxford aforesaid, and before the exhibition of this bill, that is to say between the sixth day of December, eighteen hundred and eight, and the eighth day of January, eighteen hundred and nine, at the said District of Oxford, in Maryland District aforesaid, there was clandestinely & unlawfully ladened and put on board the said schooner Martha and Susan, sundry goods, wares, and merchandize, the property of some person or persons to the said attorney unknown, with intent clandestinely, and unlawfully to export the same in the said schooner from the United States, the said schooner not being then and there duly permitted and authorised to laden the same, she being a registered vessel of the United States, whose employment is confined to the navigation of bays, sounds, rivers, and lakes, within the jurisdiction of the United States. Whereby and by force of the several acts of Congress aforesaid, the said schooner Martha and Susan, her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the said goods, wares, and merchandize, so ladened on board thereof, have become forfeited to the United States, and have been seized for the causes aforesaid by Francis Bright, Commander of the Revenue Cutter Surveyor, and carried into the port of Baltimore, for trial and adjudication, and also paying condemnation of the same, according to law. And whereas the judge of the District Court, for the District aforesaid, hath ordered and directed Wednesday, the nineteenth day of April next, for holding a District Court at the city of Baltimore, for the trial of the premises agreeably to the prayer of said attorney:—Notice is hereby given—That a District Court will be then and there held for the trial of the premises, and all persons having any claim or interest therein, are hereby cited to be and appear at the time and place aforesaid, and shew cause (if any they have) why judgment should not pass as prayed.

By order of the Judge. 4

PHILIP MOORE, Clerk,

March 28, 1809. District of Maryland.

A List of Letters

Remaining in the Post Office, Easton, Md. March 31st, 1809.

A.—MRS. SARAH ALLCOCK, Philemon H. Abel, Mrs Mary Amos, Thomas Atkinson, (2) Isaac Atkinson, (2) B.—Charles Blake, John W. Battee, (3) Joseph Bartlett, P. F. Bayard, (2) Rev. Mr. Barkley, John Berry, Lewis Bush C.—Enock Chaplin, James H. Caulk. D.—Aaron Dyer, William Dobson, (2) Joseph Dawson. E.—Peter Edmondson, Jas. Earle, jun. Mrs. Charlotte Edmondson, (2) Rev. Joseph Everett, Joseph Erwin, (6) F.—Wm. & Walter Fountain, John Fleming. G.—Capt. Thos. Gordon, Z. Gregory, Charles Gibson, Sally Gill. H.—Miss Elizabeth Haddaway, (2) Mrs. Mary Hubburt, Capt John Hall, James H. Hopkins, Philemon Hambleton. J.—J. Jefferies, Henry Johnson. K.—Thos. Kirby. L.—Geo. Jas. Lloyd. M.—Hugh Martin, Joseph M'Minor, Thomas Mackey, Edward Markland, Robert Moore & Wm. Meloy, Wm. Millington (2) Rev. Joseph Monelly. N.—Miss Mary G. Nicols, Jas. Nabb, John Nabb. O.—John Ozman (2) Samuel Ozman. P.—John Parton, Thos. Prince, Thomas Pearson, William Potter, Mrs. E. Pamphilion. R.—Capt. Thos. Robinson. S.—William Start, Wm Spencer, Sam. Stephens, Ann Sherwood. T.—Mrs. Tilghman, John Turner, Baker Thompson, (2) U.—John Ute. V.—Clement Vickars. W.—John Willis, (2) Wm. Watts, Register of Wills for Talbot County.

Wanted to purchase,

At the Star-Office—EASTON,

CLEAN LINEN & COTTON RAGS

The United States of America,

DISTRICT OF MARYLAND, sct.

District Court, March Term, 1809.

WHEREAS an information hath been filed in the District Court of the United States, for Maryland District, by John Stephen, Esquire, attorney for the same, stating, alledging, and propounding that Thomas Nicholson, Esquire, Collector of the Customs for the District of Chester, between the twenty-fifth day of April, eighteen hundred and eight, and the eighteenth day of March, eighteen hundred and nine, the day of exhibiting the said information, to wit: on the twenty-fourth day of January, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and nine, at the District of Chester, in the Maryland District, did seize to the use of the United States as forfeited, the schooner called the Patty Washington, her tackle and furniture, the property of some person or persons to the said attorney unknown, for that the said schooner then and there being a vessel whose employment was confined to the navigation of bays, sounds, rivers and lakes, within the jurisdiction of the United States, (and not being then and there a packet or ferry boat, vessel exempt from the obligation of giving any bond whatever) between the said twenty-fifth day of April, eighteen hundred and eight, and the said day of exhibiting said information, to wit: on the seventeenth day of December, eighteen hundred and eight, departed from the said District of Chester, in Maryland District, laden with a cargo of wheat, without having previously obtained a clearance from the Collector of said District of Chester, whereby and by force of the act of the Congress of the United States, in such case made and provided, the said schooner called the Patty Washington, her tackle and furniture have become forfeited to the United States, and therefore praying condemnation of the same, according to law:—And whereas the judge of the District Court, for the District aforesaid hath ordered and directed Wednesday the nineteenth day of April next, for holding a District Court at the Court House in the city of Baltimore, at ten o'clock, in the forenoon of the same day for the trial of the premises, agreeably to the prayer of said attorney:—Notice is hereby given—That a District Court will be then and there held for the trial of the premises and the owner and owners, and all persons having any claim or interest therein, are hereby cited to be and appear at the time and place aforsaid, to shew cause (if any they have) why a final determination should not pass.

By order of the Judge,

PHILIP MOORE, Clerk,

District of Maryland.

March 28, 1809. 4

POEMS.

WILL be published with all possible dispatch, POEMS, on sundry occasions, by Erasmus Perriwinkle, Esquire. Subscribers names received at this Office.

"Some rhyme a neebor's name to lash;
"Some rhyme (vain thought!) for needful cash;
"Some rhyme to court the country clash;
"And raise a din;
"For me, an aim I never fash;
"I rhyme for fun."

March 14, 1809. tf

Advertisement.

THE Subscriber hereby gives notice, that he intends to petition to the judges of Queen Ann's county, or some one of them, after two months from the date hereof, for the benefit of an act of assembly, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, entitled, "an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and of the several supplements thereto, to release him from debts which he is unable to pay.

WILLIAM PINDER.

Queen Ann's county, March 14, 1809—8

A List of Letters

Remaining in the Post Office in Chestertown, Md. April 1st 1809.

UNIT AINGER. Thomas Anderson, Edward Anderson. Wm. Baxter, Capt. Hiram Brown, Michael Blackiston, Moses Briscoe, esq. Michael Byren, Nicerbus Brown, John Bordley. James Copper, sen. (2) Philip R. Copper, J. Campbell. Polly Duvnel, Thomas Dodson. James Eagle, Jno. Ebeson, Joseph Everitt. Henry Fisher, William Farrell. Maj. William Glanvell, James Greenwood, Jonathan Greenwood, Sol. Green, Benj. Greenwood, Mrs. Ann Gibson. Patience Harrison, Sarah Hodgson, James Hatcheson, Daniel Hamer, George Hegarble, esq. James Jerronce, Thos. Kean, (2) John Kewley, Wm. Keathing, Benjamin M'Kinsey. George Lamb. Aquilla B. Meeks, Thomas Maslin, (2) James Maslin, John Miller, esq. Miss Ann B. Nicholson. Capt John Palmer, William Primrose, (2) Miss Ann Perkins. Elijah Quimby, Ann Quimby, Jas. Quimby. Captain Henry Yearly. Ann Robinson, Philip F. Raisin & Co. Levin Rollerson, James Ringgold, James B. Ringgold, Dr. Wm. Ringgold, Thomas Raisin, Samuel Ringgold. William R. Stewart, (2) Thomas Smith, esq (3) Capt. Samuel Smith, (2) John Sperney, James Scott, Joseph Simmonds, Priscila Smith. Sophia Thompson, Joseph Turner, Richard Tilghman & Son, Thomas Taylor, John Thompson. Charles Vandaran. Abraham Wilson, Chester Williams, (2) Wm. Wallace, William Wickes, John A. Woodland, Susan Waltham, Simon Wickes.

The United States of America.

DISTRICT OF MARYLAND, TO WIT:

District Court, March Term, 1809.

WHEREAS an information hath been filed in the District Court of the United States, in and for Maryland District, by JOHN STEPHEN, Esquire, Attorney for the same, stating, alledging and propounding, that after the passing of the several acts of Congress hereinafter mentioned, viz. the act entitled, "An act laying an Embargo on all ships and vessels in the ports and harbours of the United States;" the act entitled, "An act supplementary to the act entitled, an act laying an Embargo on all ships and vessels in the ports and harbours of the United States;" the act entitled, "an act in addition to the act entitled, an act supplementary to the act entitled, "an act laying an Embargo on all ships and vessels in the ports and harbours of the United States," and the act entitled, an act in addition to the act entitled, "an act laying an Embargo on all ships and vessels in the ports and harbours of the United States, and the several acts supplementary thereto, and for other purposes"—and before the exhibition of this bill, and during the continuance of the said first mentioned act of Congress, to wit: at the district of Snow-Hill, in the district of Maryland aforesaid, a certain vessel, whose name is unknown to the said attorney, did unlawfully put on board of a certain schooner called the Harriot, certain goods, wares and merchandize, to wit: eight hundred and forty-five bushels of Indian corn, one hundred and twenty-seven pieces of bacon, nine barrels of flour, one thousand and forty barrel staves, twenty-eight pieces of heading, thirty-four hogshead staves, and two cords of wood, with intent that the said goods, wares and merchandize should then and there be unlawfully exported from the said United States contrary to the provisions of the said act of Congress, entitled, "an act supplementary to the act entitled, "an act laying an Embargo on all ships and vessels in the ports and harbours of the United States," and of the act to which the said last mentioned act is a supplement:—Whereby the said schooner Harriot, her tackel, apparel and furniture, together with the said goods, wares and merchandize, so as aforesaid ladening and put on board the said schooner Harriot, have become forfeited, and have been seized by Lemuel P. Spence, Esquire, Collector of the Customs for the said District of Snow-Hill, and praying the condemnation of the same according to law—And whereas the Judge of the District Court aforesaid hath ordered and directed Wednesday, the nineteenth day of April next, for holding a District Court, at the Court House, in the City of Baltimore, for the trial of the premises, agreeably to the prayer of the said attorney. Notice is hereby given, that a District Court will be then and there held for the trial of the premises; and all persons having any claim or interest therein, are hereby cited to be and appear at the time and place aforesaid, and shew cause (if any they have) why judgment should not pass as prayed.

By order of the Judge,

PHILIP MOORE, Clerk

District Court.

March 21, 1809. 5

Notice.

ON application in writing of William Haynes, of Talbot county, to me the subscriber, one of the associate judges of the second judicial district of Maryland, in the recess of Talbot county court, for the benefit of the act of assembly passed at November session, 1805, entitled, "an act for the benefit of sundry insolvent debtors," and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, as far as he can ascertain them, on oath, being annexed to his said petition, and being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said petitioner is a citizen of the state of Maryland, and that he has resided therein the two last preceding years; and being also satisfied that the said William Haynes is now in actual confinement for debt, and for no other cause, I do hereby order that the said William Haynes be discharged from his imprisonment; and that the first Thursday of the county court, to be held for Talbot county, at the court-house in the town of Easton, on the fourth Monday of May next, be appointed, for the appearance of the said William Haynes, at the court-house aforesaid, to answer such interrogatories as his creditors may propound to him; and also to deliver up his property for the benefit of his creditors—I do further order that the said William Haynes, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star, once a week for three months successively, before the said first Thursday of May Term next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the judges of Talbot county court, on the first Thursday aforesaid, to recommend a trustee for their benefit.—Given under my hand this thirteenth day of February, 1809.

THOS. WORRELL.

Chester-Town, February 21, 1809.—3m

Advertisement.

THE Subscriber hereby gives notice, that he intends to petition to the judges of Queen-Ann's county, or some one of them, after two months from the date hereof, for the benefit of an act of assembly, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, entitled, "an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and of the supplements thereto, to release him from debts, which from a variety of misfortunes he finds himself entirely incapable of paying.

RUSSEL ARMSTRONG.

Queen Ann's county, March 21, 1809—8

A List of Letters

Remaining in the Post Office at Centreville Md. April 1st, 1809

TOBIAS BOURKE, P. C. Blake, (3) James Bayard, Senah Busick, Basil Betton, Sally Betton, James S. Betton, Aquilla Brown. Thos. Copes, Sam. Clarke, John Clarke, Enoch Chapen, Thomas B. Cook, Eben. Covington, Edward Courtey. Wm. Darne, Jno Duhamet, Wm. Dodson. Thos. C. Earle, (2) Thos. Emory, Anna M. Emory, Perry Emory. Philip Fairbanks, (2) Mrs. Foreman. Jas. Gifford, Thos. Glanvil. William Hemsley, Wm. Harper, James Hall, Alexander Hay, John Holden, William S. Harris, Thomas Harris, Mary Hayes. William King, Ann Kent, Samuel Y. Keene, (2) Hannah Massey, Wm. Mager. Benj. Newman. Lemuel Purnel, John P. Paca. George Reynolds Mrs. Richmond, Harry Richardson, Thos. Roberts, Rebecca Ringgold, James Roberts, James Roe. David W. Scott, (2) Mary Strong, John Smeade, Simon Smith, Anthony Sumption. Mrs. Tilghman, P. D. Thomas, Maria Tucker, Joseph Tolson, Samuel Wright, jun. Ann Warfield, Benj. Waters, Basil Yewell.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT the subscriber hath obtained from the orphan's court of Queen-Ann's county, Maryland, letters of administration de bonis non, with a copy of the will annexed, on the personal estate of John Bewley, late of Queen-Ann's county, deceased—All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof to the subscriber, at or before the first day of August next; they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Given under my hand this thirty-first day of January, eighteen hundred and nine.

WM. LLOYD BEWLEY,

6m Adm'r. de bonis non.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT from sundry misfortunes I am under the disagreeable necessity of applying to the judges of Talbot county court, or any one of them, after two months from this date, for the benefit of an act of assembly, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, entitled, "an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and of the several supplements thereto. WILLIAM DOBSON, Easton.

March 21, 1809. 8

Notice to Farmers.

AT CANTON PLANTATION, near the City of Baltimore, will be offered for sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, on the 2d day of May next, a valuable stock of Horned Cattle & Horses.

The cattle consist of some that were imported from Europe, of their increase, unmixed, and of others mixed with chosen cattle of this country, principally from Lancaster county, (Pennsylvania) and of the breed of the late Mr. Gough: offering to the breeder of cattle an opportunity of supplying himself with a stock, superior to any other in this country, the originals having been selected by the best judges in England, Ireland and Holland.

The HORSES consist of imported Studs, and Mares of high pedigree, of their increase unmixed, and others crossed with the best of the species in this country; with some Farm or Working Horses.

ALSO—A Number of NEGROES, (Men, Women, Boys and Girls)—Waggons, Carts, Ploughs, and other implements of husbandry.—Jan. 24, 1809.—15

☞ The Editors of the Lancaster Journal, the York Recorder, and the Star at Easton, are requested to publish the above once a week till the day of sale:—The Editor of the Philadelphia Gazette, and the Editor of the Alexandria Daily Advertiser, are requested to insert it three times a week, until the day of sale their respective accounts will be paid by the Editor of the Federal Gazette.

Thirty dollars reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Caroline county, Maryland, on the 12th day of December last, a negro man by the name of Ned, about 23 years of age, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, well made, and black—Had on when he went away olive coloured clothes. Whoever will take up and return or secure said negro man, so that the subscriber gets him again, shall receive the above reward, with all reasonable expences, by

ANDREW BEACHAMP.

February 14, 1809. (dis 2) 12q

Notice.

WAS committed to the jail of Frederick county, Maryland, on the 15th day of February last, a negro man who calls himself Phil Blake; he is about 5 feet 6 inches high, stout made; he appears to be about 23 or 24 years of age, he has a small scar near his left eye, occasioned, as he says, by a stroke from his master, his back denotes him to have been severely whipped in his time, his cloathing, when committed, were as follows, a drab coloured great coat, a dark brown roundabout, a swansdown waistcoat, old pantaloons, shoes and stockings, all much worn, a good wool hat, and wears his hair platted over his forehead. He says he belongs to Dr. William P. Matthews, on Elk Ridge, within five miles of Elk Ridge Landing. The owner is hereby requested to come and release him, otherwise he will be sold for his prison fees according to law.

GEORGE CREAGER, Sheriff

Frederick county.

March 4, (21) 1809.

☞ The Editor of the "National Intelligencer," Washington City, "Evening Post," at Baltimore, and "Republican Star," at Easton, are requested to insert the above eight weeks each.