

of employment at this time.

I wish I could get a situation for him up here - but I do not really believe for every situation in this city at this time - would average ten applicants - business is very dull during the last week it took a little start

And as for getting a political appointment for an upright honest man like he is, its almost an impossibility - however I am on the lookout and if I see where I can get him a situation I will notify you directly.

I am sorry you forgot to enclose me the Hyacinth - I am disappointed

I was sorry to see you had been sick, I hope ere this you have entirely recovered

I was quite sick two weeks ago - two evenings I had to leave the office. I am well now - Give my kindest regards to your parents and sisters - This is my mode of retaliating - Remember me to all enquiring friends - accept much love and best wishes for your self - and be sure that I you soon retaliate likewise

as ever your attached friend
