

I hear you say isn't he vain - No Miss you did right - even were you to see Mr B. every hour in the day - if his visits are to you, I don't grant the right to leave him to entertain himself whilst you entertain another either in person or by letter ~~and~~ that is one thing which would as you say, settle me to be thus treated -

My Lady friend has returned again to the City. I spent Sunday evening last with her and had a very pleasant time - She has been sick most of the time since her return which is two weeks tomorrow - She like you is very fond of receiving long and interesting letters - but ~~likes~~ dislikes to answer them - that is a family failing - ~~off~~ ^{of a} very
