STAR

General Advertiser.

EASTON:—TUESDAY MORNING AUGUST 1, 1809.

We are authorised by the following gentlemen, individually, to say that they will serve in the next Legislature of this State, if elected, for Talbot County:

PERRY SPENCER, | DR. WM. E. SETH,
DAVID KERR, jr. | SAM. STEVENS, jr.

THE People of Maryland will read with horror and indignation the recent news from England, and no little part of that resentment will fall upon the federal party. It is not the little scandal on stales which they publish every where through the country against individuals; it is not the petty gossiping stories which certain editors hunt up and propagate against their neighbors, nor yet the malignant defamation with which they have braved and insulted a virtuous administration, that can save them. Their old mother England—that mother whom they cheerfully own, and whose enormous sins they have so long palliated—has struck them with a palsy, and they stand dumb and motionless in the full view of their insulted country.

Was ever perfidy like that of England heard of? Did ever a government before defy the contempt of the world with so much wantonness as she does?—Surely the British ministry has resolved to restore the barbarous ages of the world, and, like the Goths, bring the sciences and the arts, the honor and the faith of nations, in one universal ruin? Yes! it is too true; absolute power is the sole object she aims at. Nations no longer find safety except in their courage. With England, the only danger is to negociate: In the field of battle she is harmless. In secret plots, in assassinations, in barefaced murders, she is above valiant.

She promised to support Russia, and she deserted her.

She promised to support Sweden, and she deserted her miserable king.

She promised to support the Spanish Patriots, and at the approach of a French army, her forces fled to the ocean; to that ocean whose instability is the true image of British inconstancy and deception.

And what has she done, how has she acted with regard to ourselves?

She has continually impressed our seamen:

She has violated our maritime jurisdiction:

She has murdered our citizens in time of peace:

She has captured our produce and our vessels in time of our neutrality, contrary to the laws of war, and the laws of nations:

She has insulted our government and trifled with our minister:

And, last of all, she has perfidiously disavowed the act of her authorised minister.

Who have been her friends under these accumulated wrongs?

The Federalists, the Essex Junto, and their tide-waiters.

If ever the American people can be roused, they will be roused now. If ever they are to escape from federal duplicity, they will escape now.

Federalists! you are the men who have cried down embargoes, non-intercourse, and every measure which could protect the nation against British outrage. You are the men who desired and still desire to lay the nation bare to the shafts of British hostility. Why do you now skulk behind the curtain?—Why do you not now come forward and justify your favorite Canning? Ah! methinks I see the federal leaders abandoned: methinks I see the honest part of the federalists shaking off their prejudices, and uniting with the republicans to save the country!

Citizens! was it a crime in General Smith to guard this nation against British craft? Is that the cause for which he is abused? Then, I implore you to weigh well before you decide; for this is the moment when, if we lose our old friends, we shall seek for new ones in vain.

Three vessels, which on the faith of Mr. Erskine's promise and agreement, had cleared from this country for Sweden, have been captured in the Cattegat, and carried into England—another ship has been taken on her voyage to Petersburg, and carried into port. So much for British stratagem and American credulity! But "all's well that ends well." Balt. Whig.

State of parties.—There are but two parties in the United States. The great American Republican party whose motto is respect for the Constitution, and impartial neutrality, while such neutrality can be preserved consistantly with the national honor and interest. And the small British party, whom the good sense of the people of the United States has thrown so far in the back ground.

In the front ranks of the great party of Republican Constitutionalists, will be found the names of the immortal WASHINGTON, MADISON, FRANKLIN, WARREN and OTIS, with a host of other heroes, sages and patriots, who have toiled and bled in the service of their country.

The leader of the small but turbulent party, was ALEXANDER HAMILTON, an alien. By his death, Messieurs Pickering and Gore have been promoted to the highest ranks in this faction—and may now be considered as the chiefs and head-men of the British junto. The articles of their creed, or what may with propriety be stiled the Federal Rule of Three, are the following:—"Subserviency to Britain, hatred to France and contempt for the United States." Bost. Chron.

WHEREAS it has been officially represented to me, that a certain Thomas Burk, who has lately been sentenced by the Judges of Washington County Court to suffer death for a rape committed on the body of Catharine Maria Brawner, an infant, under the age of twelve years, made his escape from Washington county gaol on the evening of the fourth of July, instant: And whereas it is obviously the duty of the Executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavor to bring all malefactors to justice, I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS reward to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring to justice the said Thomas Burk.
