

"Steve."
June, 17th 1892

My dear Susie, I had just returned from a vacation George brought me your nice note.
I thank you so much dear Susie I do not get through cleaning up, until after 12! I so think of you, would like so much to run down now, but I know it will be soon for you to give the music before, so will not come, the paper you ask about, I do not remember, will see you this evening, and will give it to you to-morrow.

Dear Susie you will have to pardon this, for I met with an other accident this morning, cut my thumb with a nail so I cannot use a pen well (never could)

Hoping I will see you soon, I am your affectionate friend

Mant

What are you doing, with your self, have a great notion to run down,

M
