

Never see any thing that is pleasing to me without wishing you were with me to enjoy it.
And I hope one of these days, and I we will enjoy some grand sights together. Now hear Susie, I do not mean to say that we have not seen grand sights, for some of our walks when the moon has climbed well I am up too high when I am talking of the moon, so we'll come down.

Let me tell you what I wished this morning, when I read the package at the "depot" well it was this, if Susie had sent me a little note I wished for it but did not expect it.
