Notice.

THE subscribers take this method to inform the public, that they intend carrying on the Fulling Business, in the neatest and best manner, and flatter themselves that they will be able to please the people much better than has been done these two years past. Abner Wilson, who is the Fuller, has been regularly bred to the business up the country, where fulling is done in the best manner; he has dyed and dressed pieces for gentlemen in Wilmington, who was allowed to be the best finished of any done there. Those who may please to favor them with their custom, may depend on being timely served, and at reasonable rates, at the old Forge Mill now occupied by John Earle, near the Head of Chester, Queen Ann's county, Maryland.

IN COUNCIL,

Annapolis, June 26, 1809,

ORDERED, That the act, entitled, an act to alter the thirty-second and thirty-seventh Articles of the Constitution and Form of Government, be published twice in each week, for the space of three months, in the American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore, the Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican, at Annapolis, the National Intelligencer, the Easton Star, Mr. Grieves's paper, at Hager's-town, and in Mr. Bartgis's paper, at Frederick-town.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

AN ACT

To alter the thirty-second and thirty-seventh articles of the Constitution and Form of Government.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That hereafter, upon the death, resignation, or removal out of this state, of the governor, it shall not be necessary to call a meeting of the legislature to fill the vacancy occasioned thereby, but the first named of the council for the time being, shall qualify and act as governor until the next meeting of the general assembly, at which meeting a governor shall be chosen in the manner heretofore appointed and directed.

And be it enacted, That hereafter no governor shall be capable of holding any other office of profit during the time for which he shall be elected.

And be it enacted, That so much of the thirty second and thirty-seventh articles of the constitution and form of government as is repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby abrogated and abolished.

And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alteration and amendment of the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

In Chancery, Aug. 22d, 1809.

RICHARD T. EARLE, vs.
William Cecil, Joshua Cecil, Thomas Simpson, and Mary his Wife, and William Scrivener, and Elizabeth his Wife.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of Samuel Carmon, late of Queen-Ann's county, deceased. The bill states that the said Carmon, on the 27th day of December, 1806, mortgaged certain lands in Queen Ann's county, to Benjamin Hall, to secure a debt due him; that the said Carman departed this life without discharging said debt, having first devised all his estates to his wife, Margaret, who afterwards intermarried with John Cresfield, and since departed this life, intestate, leaving the defendants her heirs at law—The bill further states, that the said Benjamin Hall did assign all his interest in and to the said mortgage, unto the complainant, and that three of the defendants, to wit: Joshua Cecil, and Thomas Simpson, and Mary his wife, reside out of the state—It is thereupon, on motion of the complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star three weeks successively before the 23d day of September next, to the end that the said absent defendants may appear in this court, and shew cause, on or before the 23d day of January next, if any they have, why a decree shall not pass as prayed.

Earthen Ware Manufactory,

In the old established stand, formerly carried on by JOHN BROWN, about 200 yards over Gay Street (or Griffith's) Bridge.

THE Subscribers respectfully inform their friends and the public in general, that they carry on the above POTTERY, and constantly have on hand a large and general assortment of Earthen and Moodey Ware, of the first quality; their large ware have handles to them, which is a great support in lifting; and the moody pans and dishes will be found preferable to the wheal dishes for baking, &c. They flatter themselves from their attention to the business, to merit a share of public patronage. ☞ Orders left with Mr. Nicholas S. Jones, No. 12, Bowley's Wharf, or the subscribers, will be thankfully received, and immediately attended to.

JOHN KECHLINE, & Co.

Baltimore, August 8, 1809. 10

The subscriber

WILL sell on a long credit, that valuable and well known Tavern-House and Lot in Centreville, Queen-Ann's county, now in the tenure of Mr. Benjamin Hutcheson. This house is large, convenient, and well designed for a Tavern—on the premises are a large and convenient stable and carriage house, an excellent garden, and other conveniencies. A more minute description is deemed unnecessary, as any person wishing to purchase can view the property. The purchaser can have possession 1st January next.

Private sales.

THE Subscriber offers the following valuable property at private sale, to wit: one elegant new two story Brick House, and lot, fronting on South street, in the town of Easton; said house has two good rooms in the cellar, two rooms and a passage on the first floor, and three rooms on the second floor, all neatly finished; a brick kitchen and pantry paved, a good stable and carriage house, with a well of excellent water in the yard—ALSO—the house and lot where the subscriber now lives: the house is framed 24 by 20, with a good brick smoke house and milk house adjoining, a well of good water, and a large garden fronting on South street aforesaid, together with a Coach-Maker's Shop, two stories high, framed 30 by 22, fronting on Washington street, and a large yard, an eligible stand for the Coach-Making Business—ALSO—a valuable lot of ground adjoining Thomas Atkinson's Tan Yard, fronting on the road leading from Easton to Cambridge, containing about two acres and three quarters of an acre of land, in a good situation for building on, or a Tan Yard.—It is deemed unnecessary to give any further description, as it is presumed no person will purchase without first viewing the premises. Possession will be given the purchasers immediately. For terms apply to SAML. HOPKINS.

Easton, March 28, 1809. m

N. B. If the above Brick House is not sold by the first day of May next, it will be to rent for the remainder of the year. S. H.

Worcester county, sc.

ON application to me, an Associate Judge of the Fourth Judicial District of the State of Maryland, in the recess of the court, by the petition in writing of Nathaniel Davis, stating himself to be in actual confinement, and praying the benefit of the act, entitled, "an Act for the benefit of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session, 1805, & the several supplementary acts thereto; a schedule of all his property, together with a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed thereto; and being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Nathaniel Davis hath resided within the state of Maryland for two years prior to his application, and having in pursuance of my order been brought before me, taken the oath and complied with the requisites prescribed by the said acts, is thereupon discharged from imprisonment. I do therefore order and adjudge that the said Nathaniel Davis appear before the county court of Worcester, at Snow-Hill Town, on Saturday the 18th day of November next, to answer interrogatories which his creditors may propose to him, and also for them to recommend a trustee for their benefit. And I do further order, that the said Nathaniel Davis notify his creditors for the purposes aforesaid, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star, once a week for three months successively, before the said 18th day of November next. Given under my hand this 20th day of July, Anno Domini 1809.
