STAR OF THE EAST

General Advertiser.

EASTON:—TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 26, 1810.

Extract of a Letter to the Editors of the Mercantile Advertiser, from a Gentleman at Washington, dated June the 15th.

"Observing it to be stated in various public prints, that there is a probability, or intention of calling congress, I can assure you that no such intention exists; that, on the contrary, there is almost a certainty, should nothing further occur, that Congress will not convene before the constitutional period.

"The two Spanish gentlemen, Don Juan V. Volibar and Don Joseph Yvern, said to be charged with communications from Carraccas to this government, left the city this morning for Philadelphia, where they will reside for the present. They were, it is understood, clothed with no official character; and, no government having been constituted there, could bring with them no letters of credence. They were treated with the greatest politeness by the officers of our government, but could not be received in any official character, being charged with no documents exhibiting them as representatives of a government or nation. They were, however, assured of the most friendly wishes towards them, &c.

"Supposing the above may be of some use to you, accept it as information that may be fully relied on."

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.

"Extract from the proceedings of the Republican General Committee of Cæcil county.

Elkton, June 12, 1810.

"Resolved unanimously, That convinced from long experience of the talents, virtue and patriotism of JOHN MONTGOMERY, Esq. we recommend him to our republican fellow citizens as highly meriting their support, at the next election, as a candidate to represent the 6th Congressional District in the national legislature.

"Resolved unanimously, That having full confidence in the talents, integrity, and patriotism of John Savin, John Groome, John S. Moffit, and Henry W. Physick, Esq'rs, we nominate and recommend them to our republican fellow citizens, as highly worthy of their united support at the next election, as candidates to represent this county in the General Assembly of Maryland.

LATEST FROM TONNINGEN.

Capt. Berry, of the ship Lydia, sailed from Tonningen on the 8th of May and informs us, that no seizure of American property had recently taken place there—that it was reported just before he sailed, that permission was granted for the exportation of Merchandize from Tonningen to Hamburg and Altona

LATEST FROM LISBON.

Capt. Endicott, of the ship Traveller, left Lisbon on the 8th of May, at which time an English army of 19,000 men, and a Portuguese army of 40,000, were on the frontiers, within a short distance of the French—so that a general engagement was expected to take place shortly. Capt. E. has bro't out 23 Merino sheep.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of high respectability in New York, dated June, 4th 1810.

"I have engaged in some expensive improvements in a large body of lands I have in this state for raising sheep; and have last week purchased in conjunction with a friend, six full blooded Merino sheep for the price of $7,500. We have been offered $500 for the use of one of the Rams for this season. I expect to have 1000 sheep in three years, whose wool alone, besides the increase of the flock, will yield from three to four thousand dollars per annum."

MORE BRITISH FRIENDSHIP.

His Britannic Majesty's sloop of war Atlante,* about the 1st of May, in the vicinity of the Western Islands, brought too the schooner Mary, of Boston, James Percival, master; and after the schooner's gib and mainsail were hauled down the English officer, in a most wanton manner, run his vessel foul of said sch'r. and stove in her broad-side. The officer and crew of the sch'r. after getting on board the sloop of war, requesting the use of a boat to save their clothes and a considerable amount of specie, from on board the schooner. They were insolently refused; at the same time their boat was ordered on board of a frigate then in company, with the news of this their most gallant and humane exploit!

MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Thursday, June 7.

Dr. PARISH's Election Sermon. The committee (Messrs. Greene, Phelps and Moody, of S.) to whom was referred a motion to the rev. Dr. Parish for his sermon, and request a copy for the press, reported.

That the discourse alluded to, is, in the opinion of your committee, so replete with unjust accusations against the government of the United States, and those who administer the same; and contains sentiments so disrespectful of those to whom the people of this Commonwealth have entrusted the government thereof, couched in language most exceptionable, that it would be highly derogatory to the dignity of this house to request a copy of such a discourse for publication."

This report was warmly debated, and at a late hour in the afternoon was accepted. Yeas 294. Nays 163—Majority 130. Boston pap.

The Legislature of Massachusetts adjourned on the 14th inst. to the 4th Wednesday of January next, without having come to a choice of a Senator of the United States, the votes of the Senate on concurrence in the choice of the House of Representatives being equally divided.

In the Federal Republican of Tuesday last, is a table containing a list of vessels sequestered by Napoleon in the ports of France, Spain Naples & Holland, occupying four columns, the whole of which might have been comprised in a tenth part of the compass. We would thank these sage and patriotic editors, who are so fond of swelling French aggressions for the purpose of arousing an indignation favorable to the interests of "the mother country," to inform us how many Federal Republicans would (with the aid of the same professional ingenuity) be sufficient to contain a list of similar aggressions on the part of Great Britain; and, if to this were added a list of our impressed countrymen, who are "fighting for the liberties of the world," on board the British fleet, whether it would not give them a "rest from their (editorial) labors" for many months to come. Md. Repub.

The federal tory Editors rejoice in the destruction of American property by the French, no doubt in the hope that it may give a popular bias in favor of their tender mother Britain, from whose golden breasts they suck their sustenance; while the truly patriotic American, of every political denomination, abhors alike both French and English villainy, and wishes to make no other distinction than to punish the greatest depredator first. ib.

James Monroe of Virginia, Morgan Lewis of New York, and John T. Gilman of New Hampshire, are elected members of their respective state legislatures for the present year. They have all served in the capacity of governor, and at the same time.

Sound Logic.—American ships could not have been seized by the French, if they had been detained in the ports of the United States.

The embargo would have detained them, and the republicans were in favor of the embargo.

The federalists opposed the embargo: the embargo was repealed, the vessels put to sea.

Therefore, the opposition which the federalists maintained against the embargo is the cause of the seizure of American property in France.

[Virginia Argus.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in New-Orleans, to his friend in Russelville, (Ken.) dated April 25, 1810.

"There are nine French privaters taken by the United States gun-boats now lying here, and in the river below all for trial. Many of the French here are suspected for being concerned in fitting them out; they sailed from this under American colours.

The province of West Florida, will in less than two months, throw themselves under the protection of the United States, if it is consistent for them to be received; if not, under the government of Mexico. Consultations are daily holding with the governor at Baton Rouge; none of the inhabitants are now afraid to approach him with propositions. They all equally despise Bonaparte, since they find he has possession of Spain."

In the brig Reaper, captain HINKLEY, from Calcutta, has brought, as a present to a gentleman in this town, a Cashmire Ram. Of the wool of a sheep of this species are made the fine shawls, improperly called camel's hair shawls. In the Reaper was also brought a live Leopard, about 7 month's old.

The hon. W. Gray, lieut. Governor of Massachusetts, is said to have lost $600,000 by Danish, and an equal if not a larger sum by French captures and condemnations; yet Mr. Gray is represented by the Federalists as a French partizan. Albany Register.

A letter from New Orleans, dated 24th May says—"Our ports is full of French privateeers; & I fear our trade will experience every vexation from them this summer."

Thomas Miles, vs. John, Attalanta, Levin and Edward Miles, George Robertson, Peter Waters & John Bell

THE object of the bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of Levin Miles, deceased, for the payment of his debts.

The bill states the said Levin Miles, deceased, died, not leaving personal property sufficient to pay his debts; that he devised his real estate to his children, the four defendants first named, under two of whom, the three other defendants claim an interest in a part of the said estate—It also states that Edward and Attalanta reside out of the state of Maryland. It is therefore on the complainants application, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted for three successive weeks before the 10th day of July next, in the Star, printed at Easton, to the end that the absent defendants may have information of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court, on or before the 10th day of November next, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree as prayed should not pass.
