residing on the Barbary coast, shall own in whole or in part any ship or vessel, or be concerned directly or indirectly in the exportation from, or importation to any of the states on the coast of Barbary of any goods, wares or merchandize, on penalty, that every consul so offending and being thereof convicted, shall for every offence forfeit a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the consuls residing on the Barbary coasts, to transmit to the Secretary of the Treasury annually, an account of all monies received, and of all disbursements or expenditures made by them respectively, for or on account of the United States, and the particular purposes to which the monies have been applied, and the vouchers to support the same—and the Secretary of the Treasury shall transmit to Congress, within two months after the commencement of the first session thereof in every year, a statement of all the monies disbursed from the Treasury of the United States, for expenses of intercourse with the Barbary powers during the preceding year, therein noting as far as can be ascertained at the Treasury, the sums received by the respective agents or consuls, and the purposes to which the same have been applied.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the act, entitled "An act in addition to the law of the United States, concerning consuls and vice consuls," approved July sixth, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and the act, entitled "An act to ascertain the compensation of public ministers," approved May the tenth, one thousand eight hundred, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

THE HESSIAN FLY.

The following, which was published in an Albany paper, several years since, has been handed to us by a gentleman of this city for republication:

Extract of a letter to the Printers of the Albany Gazette.

"I have noticed in some of your late papers, that the Hessian Fly has again made its appearance in the U. States; and that not only in Virginia and some other of the southern states, but also in some parts of this state melancholy proofs of the ravages of this devouring insect have been discovered. I have myself also observed, that in the county of Washington, in which I reside, the fly is again desolating the fields of wheat.

"I hope so potent an enemy will not be treated with unconcern and neglect by the friends of agriculture, but that they will unite their experience with their energy to repel and counteract his insidious and baneful influence, and if possible arrest his progress in its first onset.

"The result of my observations respecting the Hessian Fly, when he before ravaged this country, and the plan adopted for destroying him which appeared to me the most effectual, I here subjoin, with a request you will give the same a place in your paper.

"The fly deposits its eggs in the new wheat soon after its springing up in autumn, and before there are any severe frosts; propagates in the spring; remains in a torpid state till sometime after reaping; is invariably found in the first or second joint of the stalk, and takes wing in the course of August.—Cut your wheat high, remove it immediately from off the land, and without delay burn the stubble; this destroys the insect while in his torpid state, and if the burning be effectual, cuts off the Hessian Fly root and branch in one season.

I think I can safely pledge myself to you, that if this plan of cutting the wheat and burning the stubble is universally adopted, we shall hear no more of the Hessian Fly; and that in addition thereto we shall have larger crops of grain, as the burning greatly enriches the land, and has nearly the same effect as a coat of good manure."

MORE OF THE PRIVATEER.

A letter received by Mr. Gilbert, at the Exchange Coffee House, yesterday, from his correspondent in Salem, says—

"Capt. William, who arrived here this day, informs, that on Wednesday, at noon, in sight of Cape Anne, he was boarded from a small English privateer, and treated with civility. An American ship was in co. concerning which capt. W. made inquiries of the boarding officer, but received only evasive answers. He afterwards hailed her, and received no answer: but a passenger stepped over the side and chalked the word "Taken," as perceived through a glass. She appeared to be about 300 tons, had a red bottom, varnished sides, woman-head, air port between the main chains; could not read her name, which appeared to be a long one; men, women and children passengers. Capt. W. supposed a prize master was on board, to carry her to Halifax."

STAR OF THE EAST

General Advertiser.

EASTON:—TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 24, 1810.

FOR THE STAR.

The Democratic Citizens of Caroline County are respectfully informed, that

PETER WILLIS, ALEMBY JUMP—&
HENRY DRIVER, PERE. F. BAYARD, offer themselves as Candidates to the next General Assembly.——July 19th, 1810.

Washington City, July 18.

We are informed that the sloop of war the Hornet will sail from New-York between the 25th and the last of this month, for France and England; and that her commander will take charge of mercantile and other letters for Europe.

The Secretary of the Treasury left the city yesterday on a visit to the state of New-York.

The Secretary of War also left this city yesterday for the Northward

A gentleman just arrived here, from above the river Platt, on the Missouri, report that the Paurse, Panekas, Maha, Otto, Missouri, Siuex, Osage, and many other nations, are at present in open war with each other. Rodgers, the Shawonie chief, has received information a few days ago, of the murder of three of his people, who were out hunting on the Gasconade, by the Osages. if his information proves true, there is no doubt of a very formidable expedition, consisting of Mississippi and Wabash Indians, being set on foot this summer against the offending party.

(St. Louis pap. of June 21.)

FOR THE STAR.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC CITIZENS OF CAROLINE COUNTY.

Arouse Fellow Citizens.

THE time is fast approaching, when it becomes your imperious duty to confer your suffrages upon suitable characters to represent you in the State Legislature. Think not, that your election is safe, because you had such a triumphant majority last year. Remain not carelessly in criminal security, on that account; while the enemy is still lurking at the door, watching a favorable opportunity to renew the attack. It is to you a matter of the utmost importance to be Democratically represented at the ensuing period. There are objects of vast magnitude to come before the next Legislature.

Look to Boston—See the conduct of the Federal leaders—View them caressing in the most endearing manner, the incendiary Jackson, who came to our shore, yet reeking with brave Danish blood, to insult and worse than mock your general government to their face. Read the toasts of those gentlemen at their festive meetings—and can you do it without boiling with indignation against such contaminated miscreants? By the faithless SENATOR! Timothy's coast, "England's fast anchored Isle." Again, by the discarded and disgraced Jackson—"Perpetual harmony between Great Britain and the United States—May the swords of this ancient and honorable artillery company be drawn against those who would interrupt it." A very pleasant dose to a son of '76.—After the peremptory refusal of the British King to redress the many murders and impressments of our citizens, and his robberies and prohibitory Orders in Council—By a British spy on our own soil—The American sword to be unsheathed against those who would free you from British subjugation. A blessed Union! Rise and fall with Great Britain—These are the sentiments of the leaders and Demigogues of the men who have been endeavoring to deceive you; that they might bear the tyrannic sway over you.—Look at home also, and you will find the same sentiments amongst their minions, in the toasts of the Troop met at Denton on the 4th instant, who have hypocritically profaned the day; and who in order the more effectually to impose on your credulity, garb themselves with the name of the venerable Washington, a man whose sentiments as written by his own pen have ever denounced men of such principles as they hold—Read in their 8th toast, a most hearty approbation of the violators of your countries sovereignty—Here are the abettors of the British King's proclamation, when he invites your fellow citizens to abuse your laws by breaking the embargo, and he will give them protection under his cannon. Read also in the 11th toast, a violent condemnation of an attempt that was made last winter to free you in some degree from that blessed throng, the lawyers, by a well digested and peaceable arbitration system. Those gentry are so ignorant as to suppose that they can gull you by that old hackneied phrase, the "trial by jury," as if honest arbitrators were not as judicious and as good jurors without a pack of mercenary lawyers as with them. But these baits will not catch. Such impositions cannot deceive you, your eyes have been already opened by their vile infamous practices. I hope you will not voluntarily close them again, until you are completely out of danger—until you convince the most obstinately ignorant of these men, that they have become perfectly impotent. A well disciplined and faithful soldier will never be found asleep at his post. It becomes you then to scrutinize with eagles eyes the motives, principles, and conduct of the men on whom you confer your suffrages. You are to remember that there are several alterations in the constitution of the state, which your opponents disapprove of, that are to be confirmed by the ensuing Legislature. You know that it requires two Legislatures to accomplish that purpose. Keep this full in your eye. I mention those things to you now to call your attention to them in due time. It becomes you like the citizens of the sister counties of the state to "take time by the fore lock, it is bald behind."—There are 4 virtuous well tried, honest democratic candidates, who have offered for your suffrages at the next election. In them I earnestly hope you will heartily unite. For them concentrate your whole force; and you are in no danger of embargo breakers, rebels against the government, perjured insolvents, nor the fawning sycophants and obedient tools of the blood stained and unprincipled hireling Jackson.

A VOTER.

July 24, 1810.

FROM THE LYNCHBURG PRESS.

Another curious calculation for Farmers and their State Legislators.

There are 94 Counties in the state of Virginia.

There are on an average 500 freeholds in each county.

There are probably 4 useless dogs on an average on every freehold.

Amounting therefore to 188,000 dogs,

The same provision necessary to support these useless dogs would support	188,000 hogs.
Each hog is worth on an evarage 5 dollars and 188,000 will amount to	940,000 dolls.
Each useless dog will probably on an average kill 1 sheep a year, and 188,000 Sheep at 3 dollars each is	564.000 dolls.
Dolls.	1,504,000

1,504,000 dollars is more than three times the amount of the whole revenue taxes of the State.

Our Legislative gentlemen talk very much about economy in the use of public money;—are very cautious of supporting any Academy or other useful public establishment, for fear of increasing the taxes. Now if this calculation be correct it will be in their power to save to the state more than three times the amount of all the state taxes every year. If we are not misinformed the amount of the revenue in the gross is 446,487 dollars, which multiplied by 3 is 1,331,311, which is 154,989 dollars less than the amount of expence in maintaining the useless dogs of the state.

JAMES RIVER CANAL.

The Enquirer states that a contract has been made by the James River Company with capt. Abiel Cooley, of Springfield, Massachusetts, with a view of communicating the basin with tide water,—13 locks, inclusive of the water lock, are to be put up—$50,000 are to be given for the work, of which 10,000 have been already paid in part of the contract. The whole is to be completed by May, 1812.

GOUT.

A new virtue is discovered in the load-stone. The severest fits of gout will, it is said, be cured, by the sufferer wearing a magnet enclosed in a flannel case next his skin.

"AN IMPARTIAL READER" is crowded out of this morning's paper.
