Apollo's Fount.

FROM THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.

THE FAREWELL

Of the American Volunteer to his Wife.

THE trumpet sounds, my country calls,
A hostile band her shores invade;
I go to brave their cannon-balls,
And dye, in blood, my battle blade.

O MARY! gentle and sincere,
Grieve not, I pray, when thus we part;
Wipe from your eye the tender tear,
And banish sorrow from your heart.

For should I, coward-like, await
The foe's approach in martial pride,
And see him force our farm house gate,
With Lust and Rapine by his side—

I could not bear the keen rebuke
Thy screams would speak in that dread hour,
I could not bear thy helpless look,
When struggling wit their ruffian power.

No! bring my war-horse—I'll away,
And meet th' invaders on the strand;
And they shall sorely rue the day
The dar'd upon our coasts to land.

O! there will be a gallant host
Of Freedom's sons, array'd in fight;
And I will seek the bloodiest post,
And combat with a giant's might.

But weep not, MARY, if I fall,
Nor heave thy bosom with a sigh;
"Death is the common lot of all:"
'Tis for MY COUNTRY I shall die.

And teach our little blooming boy,
That life is nought with slavery wed;
Teach him to yield it up with joy,
At freedom's call, on honor's bed.

Tell him 'twas thus our heroes fought;
And MARY, be thou sure to tell
Our little one, that thus he ought
To fight;—for thus his father fell.

ALBERT.

Washington City, Oct. 1810.

Married, in England, some time since, Mr. Jonathan Neck, to Miss Deborah Heels.

Love's genius, in a playsome mood,
The torch of Hymen steals—
Then by his wiles the god subdued,
And tied him Neck and Heels.

A Clergyman, who wished to know whether the children of his parishioners understood their bibles, asked a lad that he one day found reading the old testament, who was the wicked man? 'Moses, to be sure, sir,' said the boy. 'Moses! (exclaimed the parson) Moses! How could that be?—"Why, said the lad, he broke all the commandments at once!"

At a late court, a witness was brought forward who had made rather too free with the bottle, which the judge observing, says to him, 'My friend, you are in liquor?'—'I beg your Honor's pardon,' returns the fellow, 'but your Honor lies; for the liquor is in me!'

BARGAINS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber is authorised by Major James Bruff, of Tennessee, to dispose of all the Lands of the said Bruff, in the state of Maryland. Those lands consist of two farms, one of about 450 acres of land, the other of about 60 acres—the largest is now in the occupation of John Ross, and the smallest in the occupation of John Davonish; are situated in a good neighborhood, about three or four miles from Centreville, convenient to mill and market, and are represented to me to have a sufficient supply of timber to last for any length of time, with care and economy, and the titles indisputable. The quality of the land is equal to any in the neighborhood, well adapted to the growth of wheat and corn. There is a good proportion of meadow ground, ditched, which may easily be reclaimed—The terms of sale will be, one half cash, or the amount in negroes, the residue in one, two and three yearly instalments, or well assorted merchandize would be taken in exchange. If those lands are not disposed of at private sale, they will be offered at public sale by the proprietor, who expects to be in Centreville in all November next; in the mean time the subscriber will treat with any person for them.

LITERARY & COMMERCIAL SCHOOL.

THE diffusion of useful knowledge will appear obvious to the most superficial observer: it is so generally understood and confessed, and when we reflect upon the means of supporting rational liberty, the education of youth must certainly be an object of primary consideration.

The subscriber has opened a School at Easton Point, for the reception of a select and limited number of young Ladies and Gentlemen, who will be carefully and expeditiously instructed in the following branches of Education, viz. Orthography, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar, Geography, with the use of Maps & Globes, together with so much mathematical science as may be adapted to their tender capacities, but especially, care will be taken to instruct his pupils to read, write and speak the mother tongue with propriety, elegance and correctness.

Having taught with approved ability in some of the first Academies, the strict attention paid both to the morals and instruction of his pupils, cherish him with the hope of being encouraged by the respectable inhabitants of Easton and its environs, with a suitable share of confidence and patronage.

EASTON ACADEMY.

THE Trustees of this Institution being of opinion that the appointment of a Principal, with power and authority to teach, direct, and superintend the various branches of Education proposed to be taught in the Seminary, will best promote its interests and prosperity, have accordingly engaged the Revd. Archibald Walker, in that character. He has on his part engaged to provide and employ such and so many Teachers and Assistants for the instruction of the Scholars in the Classical and Mathematical Departments, as shall be necessary for their education therein, and to direct and superintend their instruction in all the branches attached to those departments.

The trustees therefore announce to the public, that the schools will be opened at Easton, on the first Monday of September next; and they give special notice to the parents and guardians of boys in this and the neighbouring counties, that scholars will be admitted in both departments; and, in the one, will be carried through a course of education in the Latin and Greek languages; and, in the other, will be taught the English Grammar, Arithmetic, History, Geography, and all the branches of Mathematics.

The experience and success of Mr. Walker as an instructor of youth for many years, and his high reputation as a professor well qualified to each his scholars in the branches of both departments, enable the trustees to recommend the institution under their care, to the serious attention of those who are solicitous for the useful education of their children; and all such may be assured that, besides the dependence they may place upon the steady care of Mr. Walker to the instruction of his scholars in science, manners and morals, they may likewise rely upon the anxiety of the trustees to have the schools so managed, visited, and superintended, as to promote the advantage of the pupils, and establish the character of the institution.

The prices of tuition are $20 in the Classical, and $16 in the Mathematical Department; and convenient board for the scholars may be obtained in the town upon reasonable terms.

By order of the Trustees,
P. BENSON, Pres'dt.

Attest—NS. HAMMOND, Sec'ry.

FEMALE EDUCATION.

THE subscribers, considering Female Education of the first importance, have since the first of April endeavoured to establish a Female School in this place, upon a basis which might, under every circumstance, ensure its permanency. The seminary commenced under the management of Mr. Andrews some time last year, and though they have always entertained the highest opinion of his capacity for that purpose, yet they had little reason to expect that his superintendance of the school would be of long continuance; nevertheless they were well assured he would not abruptly withdraw himself without procuring a successor of equal talents or qualifications.

They therefore beg leave to inform the parents and guardians of the young ladies of Easton particularly, together with Talbot and the neighboring counties, that with all the solicitude of parents, they have taken upon themselves the character of trustees for the purpose of superintending the school at Easton, established for the exclusive benefit of Female Education, and give every assurance to the public, that the school shall be provided with good Globes and Maps, and that every useful branch of Female Education shall be taught under the personal care of Mr. Lester Kimberly, of Yale College in Connecticut, the immediate successor of Mr. Andrews.

The terms of tuition will be as heretofore, at $20 per annum, paid quarterly, with the necessary charge for firewood and school-house rent.

Application may be made to Mr. Kimberly, at his school room, directly opposite the Bank, in one of Doctor Martin's houses, or at his lodgings at Mrs. Bell's, on Washington street, a little below Dover street, or to the subscribers.
