Hampden. October 1st 1894.

The Regular Monthly Meeting of the Vestry of St. Mary's Church, was held this date, in the Vestry Room: the members present, were the following:

Rev. William C. Butler, Rector.
Francis J. Thompson,
Giles F. Lussey
Thomas Harris, Sr. Warden.
Edward J. Sinclair, Treasurer.
Jno. Spring Jr. Registrar.

The Rector opened the Meeting with prayer, and the Business before the Vestry, was proceeded in due course.

The Minutes of Meeting Sept. 3. 1894, were read & approved.

Mr. Harris, Committee, advised the Vestry of having looked into the matter of the Church painting & painting, as well as that of the Parish House & ascertained that the same would cost about $35.00 or $40.00, & ordered the work to be done.

The Registrar was authorized to collect Mr. Slade's note, & in the event of the same not being paid at maturity, and as the insurance was about to expire, on the Organ, for which such note was given, to have the insurance renewed for such Sperid as he deemed best.

The Registrar was further authorized to pay the sum of Six dollars, being six months interest on Organ Loan, to 1st July ultimo, & due W. Hall Harris. Esq.

Mr. Spring suggested, as Mr. Lyle was about to enter a night course, to pursue certain studies, & thereby necessitate him forrendering further, the valuable assistance to the Choir work, which he rendered so satisfactory, as well as to the comfort of the number there, and as Mr. Lindsey was ready and willing to be his successor, the Vestry approved the same.

The Treasurer was instructed by the Vestry, to pay the interest on amount of money received from Mr. Wilton Snowden Trustee, under the Will of the late Thomas Hanson, to the Rector, for account of salary of the Teacher account the Parish School, the same amounting to $25.66.

No further Business at this time, it was upon motion adjourned to Meet, on Monday night, the 8th inst.

Attest:

Jno. Spring Jr.
Registrar.
