Apollo's Fount.

NATIVE POETRY.

FROM THE BAROMETER.

THE STORM.

TEMPESTUOUS blow the chilling northeast blast,
And whistles dreary o'er the ravag'd plains,
The lonely herds rove shiv'ring o'er the waste,
While down with rapid force the sleet descends.

The lovely earth, once clad in vernal bloom,
Now nipt with frost, a gloomy aspect wears;
Her charms all hastening to their wintry tomb,
Each scene which once could please, now disappears.

The cottage trembles with the passing gale,
While 'neath its humble roof I'm safe and warm;
The way-worn traveller finds his courage fail,
And seeks a shelter from the battering storm.

How chang'd the scene! how late all nature bloom'd,
Sweet summer smil'd, and verdure cloth'd the ground;
But now all shrouded in autumnal gloom,
Each lovely stream in icy fetters bound.

But cease complaints, these scenes will soon be past,
A few short months, and spring resumes her reign;
Instead of howling storms, and chilling blasts,
The streams shall murmur through the flow'ry plain.

Not so with mortal man, how short his race,
Though through life's spring and summer he may bloom,
The chilling blast of death cuts short his days,
And lays him lifeless in the silent tomb.

How needful then to seek unfading joys,
Which to the soul sublimer comforts bring,
And paint her flight to bliss above the skies,
Since youth and beauty have no second spring.

EASTON ACADEMY.

THE Trustees of this Institution being of opinion that the appointment of a Principal, with power and authority to teach, direct, and superintend the various branches of Education proposed to be taught in the Seminary, will best promote its interests and prosperity, have accordingly engaged the Revd. Archibald Walker, in that character. He has on his part engaged to provide and employ such and so many Teachers and Assistants for the instruction of the Scholars in the Classical and Mathematical Departments, as shall be necessary for their education therein, and to direct and superintend their instruction in all the branches attached to those departments.

The trustees therefore announce to the public, that the schools will be opened at Easton, on the first Monday of September next; and they give special notice to the parents and guardians of boys in this and the neighbouring counties, that scholars will be admitted in both departments; and, in the one, will be carried through a course of education in the Latin and Greek languages; and, in the other, will be taught the English Grammar, Arithmetic, History, Geography, and all the branches of Mathematics.

The experience and success of Mr. Walker as an instructor of youth for many years, and his high reputation as a professor well qualified o each his scholars in the branches of both departments, enable the trustees to recommend the institution under their care, to the serious attention of those who are solicitous for the useful education of their children; and all such may be assured that, besides the dependence they may place upon the steady care of Mr. Walker to the instruction of his scholars in science, manners and morals, they may likewise rely upon the anxiety of the trustees to have the schools so managed, visited, and superintended, as to promote the advantage of the pupils, and establish the character of the institution.

The prices of tuition are $20 in the Classical, and $16 in the Mathematical Department: and convenient board for the scholars may be obtained in the town upon reasonable terms.

By order of the Trustees,

P. BENSON, Pres'dt.

Attest—Ns. HAMMOND, Sec'ry.

FEMALE EDUCATION.

THE subscribers, considering Female Education of the first importance, have since the first of April endeavoured to establish a Female School in this place, upon a basis which might, under every circumstance ensure its permanency. The seminary commenced under the management of Mr. Andrews some time last year, and though they have always entertained the highest opinion of his capacity for that purpose, yet they had little reason to expect that his superintendance of the school would be of long continuance: nevertheless they were well assured he would not abruptly withdraw himself without procuring a successor of equal talents or qualifications.

They therefore beg leave to inform the parents and guardians of the young ladies of Easton particularly, together with Talbot and the neighboring counties, that with all the solicitude of parents, they have taken upon themselves the character of trustees for the purpose of superintending the school at Easton, established for the exclusive benefit of Female Education, and give every assurance to the public, that the school shall be provided with good Globes and Maps, and that every useful branch of Female Education shall be taught under the personal care of Mr. Lester Kimberly, of Yale College in Connecticut, the immediate successor of Mr. Andrews.

The terms of tuition will be as heretofore, at $20 per annum, paid quarterly, with the necessary charge for firewood and school house rent.

Application may be made to Mr. Kimberly, at his school room, directly opposite the Bank, in one of Doctor Martin's houses, or at his lodgings at Mrs. Bell's, on Washington street, a little below Dover street, or to the subscribers.
