From the National Intelligencer.

THE SEQUEL
TO THE
"AMERICAN VOLUNTEER'S FAREWELL."

FAREWELL! farewell, my soldier brave!
Thy Mary's parting blessing take;
Nor heed me, though I loudly rave,
And sigh as though my heart would break.

For trust me, love, I could not brook;
To see thy cheek turn pale with fear,
To know that thou for me forsook
The path of honor, ever dear:

Yet, William, yet one moment stay,
One little moment give to love;
I have a thousand things to say,
And must thy sweet forbearance prove.

Forgive my tears, O do not frown,
Clasp your dear infant to your heart;
Oh! hours of bliss, forever flown—
Must we forever, ever part?

Hush! hush, my infant, weep not so,
'Twas but the brazen trumpet's blast;
Thy father, dear one, needs must go,
And hope, and love, and joy are past.

The trumpet sounds!—farewell, farewell,
My valiant soldier takes the field;
His nerves with proud emotion swell,
His noble heart knows not to yield.

And Mary press'd her darling boy,
Her bosom fill'd with deep despair;
Her eye emits no beam of joy,
And this her daily, hourly prayer:

"Spirit of goodness guard his life,
"And turn aside the vengeful blade;
"And though my William joins the strife,
"May MERCY still his heart pervade.

"For dearer than the victor's crown,
"And brighter than the morning ray,
"It swells the warrior's high renown,
"And sweetens life's protracted day.

"Oh! may his child be taught to shun
"The path of glory stain'd with gore;
"For what avails the battle won,
"When life and all its joys are o'er.

"And what is honor's boasted name?
"And what is viet'ry's flow'ry wreath?
"A painful pest—a morning dream—
"A wand'ring light which lures to death."

Thus Mary mourn'd, of hope bereav'd;
And William fought—for he was brave;
And whilst her breast with anguish heav'd,
Her hero found a blood-stain'd grave.

As light'ning quick, the tidings spread,
And Mary sunk beneath the stroke—
Life, transient life, forever fled,
Its "silver cords" and chrystal broke.

And this thy triumph, horrid WAR!
"Affection's bleeding heart to rend;"
To mock at mis'ry, and afar,
Death, ruin, and distress extend!

FEMALE EDUCATION.

THE subscribers, considering Female Education of the first importance, have since the first of April endeavoured to establish a Female School in this place, upon a basis which might, under every circumstance, ensure its permanency. The seminary commenced under the management of Mr. Andrews some time last year, and though they have always entertained the highest opinion of his capacity for that purpose, yet they had little reason to expect that his superintendance of the school would be of long continuance; nevertheless they were well assured he would not abruptly withdraw himself without procuring a successor of equal talents or qualifications.

They therefore beg leave to inform the parents and guardians of the young ladies of Easton particularly, together with Talbot & the neighboring counties, that with all the solicitude of parents, they have taken upon themselves the character of trustees for the purpose of superintending the school at Easton, established for the exclusive benefit of Female Education, and give every assurance to the public, that the school shall be provided with good Globes and Maps, and that every useful branch of Female Education shall be taught under the personal care of Mr. Lester Kimberly, of Yale College in Connecticut, the immediate successor of Mr. Andrews.

The terms of tuition will be as heretofore, at $20 per annum, paid quarterly, with the necessary charge for firewood and school-house rent.

Application may be made to Mr. Kimberly, at his school room, directly opposite the Bank, in one of Doctor Martin's houses, or at his lodgings at Mrs. Bell's, on Washington street, a little below Dover street, or to the subscribers.

EASTON ACADEMY.

THE Trustees of this Institution being of opinion that the appointment of a Principal, with power and authority to teach, direct, and superintend the various branches of Education preposed to be taught in the Seminary, will best promote its interests and prosperity, have accordingly engaged the Revd. Archibald Walker, in that character. He has on his part engaged to provide and employ such and so many Teachers and Assistants for the instruction of the Scholars in the Classical and Mathematical Departments, as shall be necessary for their education therein, and to direct and superintend their instruction in all the branches attached to those departments.

The trustees therefore announce to the public, that the schools will be opened at Easton, on the first Monday of September next; and they give special notice to the parents and guardians of boys in this and the neighbouring counties, that scholars will be admitted in both departments; and, in the one, will be carried through a course of education in the Latin and Greek languages; and, in the other, will be taught the English Grammar, Arithmetic, History, Geography, and all the branches of Mathematics.

The experience and success of Mr. Walker as an instructor of youth for many years, and his high reputation as a professor well qualified to teach his scholars in the branches of both departments, enable the trustees to recommend the institution under their care, to the serious attention of those who are solicitous for the useful education of their children; and all such may be assured that, besides the dependence they may place upon the steady care of Mr. Walker to the instruction of his scholars in science, manners and morals, they may likewise rely upon the anxiety of the trustees to have the schools so managed, visited, and superintended, as to promote the advantage of the pupils, and establish the character of the institution.

The prices of tuition are $20 in the Classical, and $16 in the Mathematical Department: and convenient board for the scholars may be obtained in the town upon reasonable terms.

By order of the Trustees,
