MISFORTUNE.

Sweet are uses of Adversity,
Which, like the toad, ugly and venomous,
Wears not a precious jewel i - its head.
SHAKESPEARE.

'TIS thine, dread power to tame the heart,
And bid the tear of sorrow flow!
The troubled soul, pierc'd by the dart,
Will learn to "feel another's woe."

Informed by thee, the immortal mind,
In holy contemplation roves,
Her views "outstrip the fleeting wind"
And soar where angels tell their loves

The manly breast will meet thy blast,
And proudly stem thy rudest shock;
'Twill never sigh for pleasures past,
But build on Heaven's eternal rock.

Yes!—'tis RELIGION's soothing power,
Which bids us bear MISFORTUNE's frowns,
'Tis THAT which cheers the gloomy hour,
When grief the fainting spirit drowns.

RELIGION, like the brilliant bow,
Shines through ADVERSITY's dark cloud;
SHE rends the sable weeds of woe,
Which oft our brightest prospects shroud.

Weak mortals, then, no more repine,
Nor dare dispute th' ETERNAL's will;
FAITH points to realms of light divine,
And bids the doubting soul be still.

NOTICE.

JOHN STEWART, of Talbot county, having made application in writing to me the subscriber, chief judge of the second judicial district of the state of Maryland, in the recess of Talbot county court, for the benefit of the act of assembly, passed at November session, in the year eighteen hundred and five, entitled, "an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and of the supplements thereto, there being no property neither real, personal nor mixed, the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of himself and family excepted, and a list of his creditors, as far as he can ascertain or recollect them, on oath, being annexed to his petition; and being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said petitioner is a citizen of the state of Maryland, and that he resided therein two years next before the passage of the act of assembly aforesaid, and that he has ever since resided in the said state; and being also satisfied that the said John Stewart is now in actual confinement in Talbot county goal for debt and for no other cause—I do therefore hereby order, that the said John Stewart be discharged from his imprisonment, and that the first Saturday in the next May term of Talbot county court, at Easton, in the said county, be appointed for the personal appearance of the said John Stewart in the said court, to answer such interrogatories as his creditors may propound to him, and also to deliver up his property to a trustee for the benefit of his creditors—I do therefore further order, that the said John Stewart cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton newspaper called the Republican Star, once a week for four weeks successively, three months at least anterior to the said May term of the county court aforesaid. and thereby give notice to his creditors to appear before the judges of Talbot county court, on the first Saturday aforesaid, and to recommend a trustee for their benefit. Given under my hand this first day of September eighteen hundred and ten. RD. T. EARLE.
