BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE

Of the High Court of Chancery, will be exposed to public sale, on Wednesday, the 12th day of June next, being the fourth day of the week, at 11 o'clock on said day, on the premises,

ALL that part of the TRACTS called Smith Clifts and Chesnut Bay, formerly the property of William Hardcastle, lying in Talbot county, containing about 180 acres, situated on Tuckahoe Creek& the county road, about 12 miles from Easton, 2 from Hillsborough, and adjoining the grist mill formerly Hardcastle's. There is a good portion of said land in cultivation, the remainder in woods. There is on said premises a good dwelling house and other out buildings, convenient for farmers, and a small apple orchard of choice fruit—The land is well adapted to the growth of wheat and corn, and being a soil that will admit of great improvement. The terms of sale will be, that the purchaser or purchasers shall give bond to the subscriber as trustee, with approved security for the payment of the purchase money, within twelve months from the day of sale, with interest thereon; and if it should happen that day aforesaid should be rainy, the property as described will be sold at the same hour on the next fair day, and attendance given by PETER HARRISS, Trustee.

5th mo 7——6

By order of the honorable the Chancellor in the Decree aforesaid, the creditors of William Hardcastle, deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit their claims with the vouchers thereof in the Chancery Office within six months from the aforesaid day of sale. PETER HARRISS, Trustee.

LAND FOR SALE.

By Virtue of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery,

WILL be sold on the premises, on the fifteenth day of June next, if fair, if not, the first fair day thereafter, the tract of land on which Woolford Stewart now lives, being part of a tract of land called Fisher's Chance, situate on Black Water River, Dorchester county, containing about 200 acres. There are on the premises a two story dwelling house, 22 feet by 42, with barns, stables, and other out houses necessary for farming. The terms of the sale are, one fifth of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale, one other fifth part thereof to be paid in six months from the day of sale; one other fifth part to be paid in twelve months from the day of sale, and the remaining other two fifths in eighteen months from the day of sale, for which latter four fifths, notes or bonds with good security to be taken, to bear interest from the day of sale, but if the highest bidder shall not give good security on the day of sale, then to the next highest, and so on until good security be given.

may 21—3 JAMES BOYLE, trustee.

FARMERS ATTEND.

WILL most positively be sold, on Monday, the 17th of June next, precisely at three o'clock, on the premises, that very handsome FARM, whereon the subscriber now lives, containing 358½ acres which has been recently described in the Star and Monitor, on the following terms, viz. £450. payable the 10th of November next, and the balance in two equal annual payments. Those gentlemen that are at a distance, who may incline to purchase, areparticularly invited to the subscriber's the day previous to the sale. DEKAR THOMPSON.

Near Denton, Md. 21st may——4

NOTICE.

In pursuance of an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at their last session,

WILL be sold at public sale, on Tuesday, the 6th of August next, on the premises, lying in Northwestfork, Dorchester county, all the real estate of Levin Irving, (son of doctor William Irving, deceased) consisting of the one half of two tracts of land, with the one half of a saw and grist mill. This estate was formerly the property of doctor Gale, dec'd, and is now in the possession of Mrs. Joseph Wheatley, and Mr. Thomas Goslee—upon application to either of the above gentlemen, the property will be shewn to any one desirous of seeing it. The terms of sale will be a credit of seven years, with bond and security, bearing interest from the day of sale, with the further security of a mortgage for the property. A good title will be given, by

HANDY H IRVING, Trustee.
