IN CHANCERY, May 30, 1811.

Robert Walters,
v.
Mary & Zachariah Roberts.

THE object of the bill is to have a Deed recorded. The bill states that Zacharias Roberts, of Queen Ann's county, on the 31st day of December, 1803, executed a deed to the complainant, for part of a tract of land called Tom's Fancy Enlarged, in said county—which deed, without any fraudulent design or intention whatever, hath been omitted to be recorded within the time prescribed by law.

The bill further states that the said Robests since died intestate, leaving the defendants & others his heirs at law, and that the said Mary and Zachariah reside out of the state. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be insetted once in each of three successive weeks, in the Easton Star, before the 15th day of July next, give notice to the said absent defendants to appear in this court, either in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 15th day of November next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree shall not pass as prayed. True copy.

TO BE LEASED,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS:

THAT elegant situation opposite to the City of Annapolis, adjoining Fort Madison—it contains upwards of 300 acres of excellent land, with oyster shell banks of manure in each field, with three negro men; with good improvements—the advantage of keeping a Ferry Boat, having hands used to it, and the convenience to one of the best markets (for the seller in the state) is very great. Any person wishing to rent may apply to Mr. Clements, in Annapolis, or to the subscriber at Easton. I observe that some person has cut several cedar posts on the banks of the river and creek; I hereby forewarn all persons from bringing boats or canoes into any of my creeks, or taking away any sort of wood at their peril. To save trouble, no person need apply unless they can give good security, if required.

IN SUBMITTING THE ABOVE SCHEME TO THE PUBLIC,

The managers will not attempt any eulogium on the importance or necessity of vaccination. They believe that, at this time, not a doubt exists in the mind of any well informed person, of the efficacy of the kine pock, as a safe and certain preventive of the small pox; while the difficulty, if not the impossibility, of preserving this remedy without the aid of an institution, such as is intended to be established and supported by the profits arising from this Lottery, is also so well known, that the Managers feel confident that their exertions will meet with the liberal and prompt support of the public.

Acceptable offers for all the Tickets in the FIRST CLASS, which may then remain unsold, having been already made to them, the managers can assure the public that the drawing of this Class will positively commence on Wednesday, the 31st of July next, and continue one or more days in every week, until it is concluded.

As soon after the drawing of the First Class is completed, as the necessary arrangements can be made for that purpose, the managers will proceed without delay, to draw the second class

The Scheme, on an attentive examination, will be found to afford inducements to adventurers equal to any heretofore proposed

All prizes will be paid within sixty days after the drawing of each respective class is completed, subject to fifteen per cent deduction. The managers will contract for any number of tickets which companies or individuals may want; and will receive and attend to orders for tickets (postage being paid and the cash enclosed) from any part of the United States.
