FROM THE CHARLESTON CITY GAZETTE

The following Song, written by a gentleman of this city, was sung at the late Anniversary of the Palmetto Society, by a member. Should you think proper, you are at liberty to insert it in your useful paper.—W.

TUNE—YANKEE DOODLE.

ONCE BINGHAM took the Little Belt,
And from the Downs he sail'd her,
And when he came upon our coast,
Brave ROGERS spy'd and hail'd her.

CHORUS.

Yankee Doodle, keep it up,
To Rogers be the glory
From insult to protect our Flag
And tell an HONEST STORY.

When Bingham heard bold Rogers hail,
Not knowing him a thumper,
He thought but on the Chesapeake,
And bounce went off a plumper.
Yankee Doodle, &c.

No insolence was more refin'd,
Our honour to enveigle,
Than for a saucy Little Belt
To try to girt an Eagle.
Yankee Doodle, &c.

So Rogers such an answer sent,
For fighting without glasses,
As made the British fly to grog,
While Yankees drank molasses.
Yankee Doodle, &c.

Yet Rogers scorn'd to use his strength,
And dish'd her quite completely,
While Bingham stood and scratch'd his head,
He riddled her most neatly.
Yankee Doodle, &c.

Next morning, soon as peep of day,
In compliments they barter;
Says Rogers, "Sir, can I serve,
"To help you through the water?"
Yankee Doodle, &c.

"No, sir, says Bingham, thank you kind,
I've got enough already;
I'll help myself along the stream,
To Halifax, most steady.
Yankee Doodle, &c.

"And there I'll raise a damn'd report,
Which all my friends will gabble;
Contrive to hide the grand mistake,
Which brought me in this hobble.
Yankee Doodle, &c.

"And had you not been quite so rough,
In this "affair" so noted,
I might, as practice long has shown,
At home have been promoted
Yankee Doodle, &c.

"But should I ever rise so high
As even Knight of Garter,
I'll look more sharp for privateers,
For fear I catch a Tarter."
Yankee Doodle, &c.

FOR SALE.

WILL be sold, on Friday, the 9th August next, if fair, if not, the next fair day:

A VALUABLE tract of Land lying in Dorchester county, near Airey's meeting house, containing about 400 acres—about 150 acres of the above land are now in cultivation; the soil of which is excellent, the residue is heavily timbered. A clear and indisputable title will be given to the purchaser. The terms of s. will be made known on that day—the sale to commence at eleven o'clock.

THOMAS J. H. ECCLESTON.

Cambridge, july 2——6

FARM FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale a valuable FARM in Caroline county, 4 miles above Greensborough, containing upwards of seven hundreds acres. The soil is well adapted to the growth of grain or hay, particularly a bottom, supposed to contain from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and forty acres, which is inferior to none to the growing of timothy or herd grass; the half of this bottom is cleared, the greater part of which is now in corn. This farm is well timbered, and will be sold altogether, or in lots of one or two hundred acres. For terms enquire of Mr. Thomas Goldsborough, living near the property, or to the subscriber in Talbot. If not sold by the first of Sept. next, it will then be for rent.

JOHN BARNETT.

Belle-Air, july 23——m

FOR SALE,

THE Lands now in the occupation of Mrs. Margaret Bromwell, about seven miles from Easton, on which are a good dwelling house of brick, large and convenient; also, a large barn and granery, with other buildings. A description is thought unnecessary, as the purchaser may view and examine whether it would suit Should these lands not be sold in a short time, they will be to be rented.

july 16—m WM. HAYWARD

LAND FOR SALE.

THE subscribers will sell those LANDS in Talbot county, elegantly situated on the salt water of Choptank River, containing about 1000 acres. A further description is considered needless, as it is presumed any person wishing to purchase will view the land. If the above land is not sold by the 12th August next, it will on that day be offered at Public Sale, if fair, if not, on the next fair day—The conditions will be made known and the land shewn by applying to Lewis Bush, at the Trappe.

16th. At Ocmulgee Old Fields, & at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the limits of the state of Georgia.

17. Proposals will also be received, as aforesaid, for the supply of all rations which may be required by the United States, for the troops which are or may be stationed, marched, or recruited within the town of Springfield in the state of Massachusettts: and for the armorers and other persons employed in the United States Armory at that place, from the 1st day of June 1812, inclusive, to the 1st day of June, 1813.

A ration to consist of one pound and one quarter of beef, or three quarters of a pound of salted pork, eighteen ounces of bread or flour, one gill of rum, whiskey or brandy, and at the rate of two quarts of salt, four quarts of vinegar, four pounds of soap, and one pound and a half of candles, to every hundred rations. The prices of the several component parts of the ration shall be specified; but the United States reserve the right of making such alterations in the price of the component parts of the ration aforesaid, as shall make the price of each part thereof bear a just proportion to the proposed price of the whole ration. The rations are to be furnished in such quantities, that there shall at all times, during the term of the proposed contract, be sufficient for the consumption of the troops at Michilimackinac, Detroit, Chikago, Fort Osage and Belle Vue, for six months in advance: and at each of the ports on the western waters, for at least three months in advance, of good and wholesome provisions, if the same shall be required. It is also to be permitted to all and every of the commandants of fortified places or posts, to call for, at seasons when the same can be transported, or at any time in case of urgency, such supplies of like provisions in advance, as in the discretion of the commandant shall be deemed proper.

It is understood that the contractor is to be at the expence and risk of issuing the supplies to the troops, and that all losses sustained by the depredations of the enemy, or by means of the troops of the United States shall be paid by the United States at the price of the articles captured or destroyed as aforesaid, on the deposition of two or more persons of creditable characters, & the certificate of a commissioned officer, stating the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles for which compensation shall be claimed.

The privilege is reserved to the United States of requiring that none of the supplies, which may be furnished under any of the proposed contracts, shall be issued, until the supplies which have been or may be furnished under the contracts now in force, have been consumed; and that a supply in advance may be always required at any of the fixed posts on the sea board, or Indian frontier, not exceeding three months.

W. EUSTIS.

The editors of newspapers who are authorised to publish the laws of the United States are requested to publish the foregoing advertisement twice a week for four successive weeks.——july 13 (23)——8
