STEVENSON ARCHER, Esq. is elected to Congress for the districts of Cæcil, Harford and Kent, in Maryland, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of John Montgomery, Esq.

New York, October 9.

Mails.—By a late regulation of the Post Master General, we understand, that both the eastern and southern mails are to be delivered at the post office in this city every morning at 5 o'clock—that the eastern mail is to be closed and dispatched at 6 o'clock in the morning in future, instead of 8, and that it will continue its route through from New York to Boston in 36 hours.

The frigate President, commodore Rogers; United States, commodore Decatur; and brig Argus, capt Lawrence, arrived in this port yesterday afternoon from a cruise.

October 8.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

Yesterday arrived at this port, the fast sailing ship Orbit, Beol, 35 days from Liverpool.

Capt. B. has furnished the editors of the Mercantile Advertiser, with London papers to the 29th of August, and Lloyd's Lists to the 27th, inclusive, a few days later than has been received; but they are almost wholly destitute of intelligence worth copying.

The king of England was alive on the 29th of August; but was very ill, and his recovery hopeless.

October 10.

The ship Solon, which arrived at this port yesterday from London, brought dispatches from our charge des affaires in London, for our secretary of state.

Our advices from London by the Solon are not so late as those received by the Orbit from Liverpool

Extract of a letter from a very respectable and intelligent American Merchant, now in Liverpool, to his friend in this city dated August the 28th, 1811.

"The king still lives, and many people think he may continue in his present state for many years.

The Catholics in Ireland are in commotion, and something very serious is to be apprehended—there are frequent meetings throughout the whole county, and their proceedings are bold and violent.—Petitions for equal right are made out, and unless the prayers of the petitioners are granted, things will come to an awful crisis. The government are alarmed, and are exchanging the militia, by sending the English to Ireland, and bringing the Irish to England. The deserters in this country are rapidly increasing, and appear to favour the cause of the Catholics.

I have made it a part of my business since my arrival to learn the state of American produce, and am impressed with a belief, that this country will not want any thing of consequence from the United States for a year to come.—There are large stocks on hand, and the consumption of many articles decreases.—The crops of grain have been very abundant, and well secured:—therefore, they will not want any supplies from America at his prices."

COMMUNICATION FROM THE BOST. PAT.

RICH AND POOR.

It is a self evident fact, observes our correspondent, and we believe very few be found to controvert it, that in all countries, and under all governments; the very rich of their citizens, are, generally speaking, aristocrats or tyrants, and the very poor, who are dependant on them for support, are no better than slaves and vassals to the RICH. In our beloved country, blest with the best and freest government in the world; even, in this country; the fact will but too evidently apply. The very rich, of our citizens are for the most part, aristocrats, or, as they are pleased to stile themselves federalists; and of course, the very poor, who look up to them for a maintenance and support, are the tools with which they work themselves into power—it is therefore, on the MIDDLING INTEREST, and thank Heaven, this class of our citizens, are the YEOMANRY and MECHANICS of our country; who are, an immense majority, of the nation; on this independent class of our citizens, alone, we must depend for the support, and continuance of those invaluable rights and privileges, guaranteed to us, in our excellent democratic form of government. Few very few, of our over grown rich citizens, are friendly to that liberal principle, recognized in our constitution, that "all men are born free and equal," this sound is discordant in their ears! what! says the purse proud lordling! shall the mechanics vote, be the same as mine! insufferable! my riches give me greater influence in society than he can have, and why should I not have greater privileges. Only let the MIDDLING INTEREST, which we presume will always be the vast majority of the people of these United States, respect themselves and feel their own weight and consequence in the government and our excellent free & happy form of government will be perpetuated to the end of time, and the "purse proud lordlings" and our self created great men, will deservedly sink into insignificance. L.....

Interesting to Old People.—The following course of procedure will enable them to preserve the eye sight, or recover it after it had failed. Every morning, when washing yourself, dip your face into the water, as long as you can hold your breath. This strengthens the eye and cleanses it from the rheum which deadens the sight and considerably effects the ball. A gentleman in Maryland, by the name of James Calder, after using spectacles for twenty-five years, followed this plan, and at the age of 70 recovered his sight so as to see without them. Dipping the crown of the head into cold water, every morning both winter and summer is a preservative against the head and ear ache, and will materially assist the other operation, in its effect upon the eye.

It is asserted "that one of the greatest characters the world has known," have arisen from an obscure origin. The following list in proof of this assertion might be greatly enlarged, and particularly by those who have been or now are eminent in the United States. Amer. Patriot.

Demosthenes was the son of a forgeman.
Virgil of a baker.
Horace of a freedman.
Theophrastus of an old clothesman.
Rousseau the poet, of a shoemaker.
J. J. Rousseau was a watch maker.
Moliere was the son of a tapestry man.
Rollin the historian of a cutler.
Massillon of a tanner.
James Cook of a very indigent peasant.
Shakespeare of very poor parents.
Benjamin Franklin, the son of a tallow chandler, and himself a printer.
Rittenhouse a goldsmith
Washington was a land surveyor.
Wayne a tanner.
Greene a miller.

Died, on Sunday last, in this town, Mr. Lester Kimberly, of the State of Connecticut.

——, On Sunday night last, Miss Elizabeth Skinner, of this county.
