thence easterly and parallel with Baltimore Street to Frederick street, there commence at the north west corner of Joseph Jamison's Brick house, and run thence easterly and parallel with Baltimore street, until it strikes the west side of Harrison street; there commence at the northwest corner of Richard P. Sherwood's brick house, and run easterly and parallel with Baltimore street, and bounding on said Richard P. Sherwood's lot to Jones' Falls, and running thence in a straight line until it strikes the line of the South side of Pitt street.

Sect. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That the common name of Fayette street so extended, and of Pitt street so united with Fayette street so extended, shall be Fayette Street, and that the City Commissioners be, and are hereby directed to notice the alteration upon the plat of the city.

Sect. 3. And be it further enacted and ordained, That the said board of commissioners shall proceed in all respects in the extension of said street, in conformity with the provisions of the ordinance to provide for exercising certain powers vested in the corporation in relation to streets, approved March 9th 1844. and shall receive the compensation therein provided; and the Collector of the City shall perform like duties in relation to opening said street, as are provided in said ordinance; and the Register shall perform the duties required of him by said ordinance, and shall be allowed such compensation as the said board of commissioners shall deem proper; provided that the said commissioners shall not assess for said extension of Fayette street, any property in Baltimore street.

Sect 4. And be it further enacted and ordained, That in no event shall the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, be responsible for any ~~expense~~, cost or charge or part or parts thereof relating to, or connected with the extension of said street, except for the building of a bridge over Jones' Falls, and for the assessments of benefits on property owned and held by the city of Baltimore.

The substitute was read and laid on the table.

The bill entitled "An ordinance to prevent swine running at large in Baltimore".

The report of the joint committee on claims, on the petition of

S. C.

S. C. Leakin, A. T. Donaldson and James Howard.

The report of the joint committee on streets, relative to the bed of an alley between Baltimore and Hollins streets, were received from the Second Branch, read and laid on the table.

The report of the joint committee on markets, relative to an office for the Clerk at the Hanover Market, was received from the Second Branch, read the first and by special order the second time and concurred in"

Mr Cooper called for the second reading of the bill entitled "An ordinance authorizing the erection or purchase of two school houses".

Mr Brown moved to amend the bill by striking out the third section, which was determined in the affirmative.

The bill being on its passage "was passed" with the proposed amendment.

On motion of Mr Leonard a message was sent to the Second Branch, proposing the appointment of a joint committee of conference, on the subject of the organization of a seperate board of health — and Messrs Leonard, Walsh and Marley were appointed the committee.

Mr Browning from the committee submitted the following report, which was read a first and by special order the second time and adopted:

The joint committee of conference, on the petition of Benjamin B. Beall, have examined the subject referred to them, and consider the prayer of the petitioner just and reasonable, and respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Wm. S. Browning
Richard Marley
Alex Russell Jr
Committee of the First Branch
W. J. Wight
Francis Forman
B. S. Richardson
Committee of the Second Branch

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Register be, and he is hereby authorised to pay to Benjamin B. Beall, out