GOLD.

Magic metal, that canst change
All things in creation's range—
Gold, the miser's dear delight;
Gold, that mak'st the coward fight:
Gold, that oil'st the pleader's tongue,
Mak'st the wrinkled face look young,
Tempts the sailor on the main,
And unlock'st the pris'ner's chain;
Gold, which aid'st the peasant's leap
Up preferment's dang'rous steep;
Buy'st the boasted freeman's vote,
Stop'st the bawling patriot's note—
Wretched Gold! in luckless hour
Chance o'er thee gave mortal's power.

On Indostan's peaceful plain,
Drench'd with gore, and strew'd with slain,
Brahma's gentle children bleed;
Thirst of Gold has urg'd the deed.
Europe's sons, those needy slaves,
Tempt for thee the stormy waves,
Pant beneath a burning zone,
And bask in treasures not their own.

Where Peruvian temples shone,
Gold turn'd human hearts to stone:
Cursed Gold! for thee arise
Murder'd millions' piercing cries;
Rack and torture, whip and chain,
Mark (for thee) European reign.
History the record keeps,
Heavenly vengeance only sleeps;
It will awake, on that dread day,
When time and worlds are swept away.

Where dark Gambia rolls its flood,
Banks are urg'd with human blood,
Battles urg'd by love of Gold,
Conquor'd victims bought and sold.
Monsters, to the future blind,
Purchase, kidnap, steal their kind—
Oh! sin too rank, should Heav'n be just—
Man sells his soul! for glitt'ring dust!

PHILO HUMANITAS.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY
EDWARD LLOYD, ESQUIRE,
GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it is directed by the forty ninth section of the Act entitled "An act concerning crimes and punishments," passed at November session eighteen hundred and nine, that as soon as the Penetentiary House in Baltimore county is ready for the reception of criminals, that the Governor of this State shall notify the same by proclamation. And whereas, the inspectors of said institution have reported to me that the said building is completed, and the requisites of the said law have been in all other respects complied with: I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, hereby declaring the said Penitentiary House to be ready for the reception of criminals who may be condemned to work and labour therein as the said law requires.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Maryland, this 30th day of September, in the year of
(L. S.) our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eleven, and of the independence of the United States of America the thirty fifth.

EDW. LLOYD.

By His Excellency's command,
NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

NOTICE.

THE Constables of Caroline county intend to petition the Legislature of Maryland, for a law to authorise the Justices in certain cases to issue a summons instead of a warrant, and that summons to be left at the defendant's house or last place of abode, the defendant refusing or neglecting to appear and make his defence on or before the second day of meeting thereafter, the Justice shall be authorised to enter judgment against the defendant, and the judgment shall be as binding as if the constable had served a warrant on the defendant, and brought him before the Justice. The constables of Caroline county request the constables of the adjoining counties, to petition the Legislature to the same effect, as it would save the constables of great trouble, and enable the plaintiffs to recover their debts much sooner.——november 12——3q

WILLIAM COOPER'S
NEW TAYLORING SHOP.

THE subscriber having lately returned from Baltimore, where he has been employed in one of the most fashionable shops in that place; and having commenced business in Easton, in the house formerly occupied as a store by Mr. Abbott, next door south of Mr. Bennett's new brick building, takes the liberty to solicit the patronage of his friends and the public—He flatters himself that his acquaintance with his business will justify this call for public patronage, and satisfy all who may favour him with their custom.

He will have constantly on hand the newest fashions, and no pains shall be spared to gratify the taste, and comply with the convenience of his customers.

Easton, august 27——m W. C.

☞ The subscriber wants TWO or THREE good workmen——Constant employ and liberal wages will be given.

TO BE SOLD,

The following LANDS in Appoquinimink Hundred, the county of New Castle, and State of Delaware:—

A PLANTATION or tract of Land called Camden, containing about 350 acres, situate on the south side of Appoquinimink river, half a mile above the village called Cantwell's Bridge where a considerable trade is carried on. It is bounded by the river near a mile—about 140 acres are arable, 120 wood, the residue marsh and cripple; the state road runs through it.

Also—A tract of Land of about 430 acres, near three miles west of the state road, where it crosses Blackbird creek; about a third part is arable, the rest well timbered, and above 50 acres of meadow may be made. There is a quantity of iron bog-ore on this land. It lies 5 miles from the public landings on the navigable waters of Delaware Bay, and the same distance from those of the Chesapeake. The two above mentioned tracts will be divided, each into two or more farms, if desired.

Likewise—A Plantation, containing 150 acres, situate on the northeast branch of Duck creek, and near to a landing; it lies about three miles to the east of the state road, where it crosses Blackbird creek.

The terms of sale will be reasonable; a fourth part of the purchase money cash—the residue will be received in annual instalments for three or more years, and a bond and mortgage from the purchaser accepted as security. For further particulars apply to Mr. John Cummins, merchant at Smyrna, in the county of Kent; Mr. Wm. F. Corbit, merchant at Cantwell's bridge, in the county of New Castle; or to the subscriber in the city of Philadelphia—who will also sell or let, on improving leases divers tracts of land in Beaver, Alleghany, and Centre counties in Pennsylvania, in well settled neighbourhoods. THOS. M'KEAN.
