The Annual meeting of the Maryland Press Association will be held at Carvel Hall, Annapolis, on Wednesday, February 11th.

Mr. A. Dana Hodgdon, of American Legion, Post 54, attended the meeting of that Association in Baltimore, on Tuesday and Wednesday last.

A Card party will be held on Shrove Tuesday in Herbert's Hall (over garage), Mechanicsville, for the benefit of Immaculate Conception Church.

Mr. George H. Stevenson, manager of the Tobacco Growers' Association, advises that the salesrooms of the association are now ready for the receipt of tobacco.

There will be a Leap Year carnival and dance, under the auspices of the Men's League, at St. John's Hall, Hollywood, on Friday, February 13. Admission 25 cents.

On Monday last 'Brer' Groundhog woke out of his winter sleep, and after viewing the skies returned to take a further nap. From present outlook. his hogship ranks wite DeVoe as a prognosticator.

Steamer Northumberlaud, Captain Harding, left Baltimore on Tuesday last and arrived at Leonardtown Thursday night. Captain Harding reports several bouys misplaced and carried away by the ice.

The Modern Woodman will give an entertainment at the Town Hall, Leonardtown, on Wednesday, February 11, consisting of the new 7-reel production, "The Tale af Two Cities," with William Farnum in the principal role. Dancing will follow.

At the monthly meeting of the Auxiliary of St. Mary's Hospital it was decided that owing to the drive for the 3rd District coming in March, and various other entertainments taking place before Lent, they would postpone their annual affair until later.

Miss Marguerete Courtot, of New York has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. King, of Hotel St. Mary's. Miss Courtot is one of the most beautiful as well as charming young lady. An informal dance was given in her honor on Wednesday evening.

Gaius W. Billups, died in Baltimore on February 2d. Captain Billups was among the oldest of the captains of the M. & M. Company. He was a friend of the late Lieut Wm. H. Brown, and was a frequent visitor to him at Retirement' in years long past.

Mr. John W. Jones, died at his residence in Baltimore on Sunday last, aged about 90 years. He was a native of this county and is survived by his wife, who was a Miss Wheeler and several children. The house in which he resided sheltered four generations of his family.

If you are looking for a real good time, and a delightful memory to carry through to the dull days of Lent, don't fail to attend the Dance and Five Hundred, to be given by the people of Medley's Neck for the benefit of Our Lady's Chapel, at Hotel St. Mary's on the 16th. Rumor has it that the prizes are the best ever given, and this is saying much, for donations have always been the best, even the consolation prizes will be worthy of the name.

To Rebuild Leonard Hall.

The following circular letter, which speaks for itself is being addressed to various citizens of the county:

Dear Sir:—

Being appreciative of the great good the Xavarian Brothers have done for St. Mary's County at Leonard Hall, the High School conducted by them, and of the many sincere and extremely personal sacrifices made by these unselfish men that the youth of the county—our boys and your boys—may have the opportunity to receive, at a small amount of money, a training calculated to make them bigger and better men—men of clean hearts and cultured minds—a course so necessary to fit them for the busy, aggressive world of today; and realizing the necessity of furnishing the school money to repair the severs loss suffered on Sunday, Jan 18th, last, when the school building and its contents were destroyed by fire: if these men are to be able to continue with any degree of success in the immediate future, the splendid work they have been accomplishing since their advent here, we have voluntarily offered to raise, not for the Brothers personally, (though God knows, they deserve it, and more) but for the boys of our county, and the generation of boys to follow, a sum of at least $10,000 00, and have with full confidence selected you as one of the citizens of St. Mary's, with enough pride in her institutions and anxiety for her future, to contribute the sum of $25 00 to this most worthy cause, and thus be one of the 400 loyal and liberal folks of the old county who will, in a way, make up an honor roll ever to be remembered as dual benefactors by serving the county in providing for the education of her lads now, and in the future, and by providing also the means necessary to supply the good men who offer their lives for this most essential service, with just the ordinary comforts of life Knowing that the splendid manhood of our beloved county has never failed to measure up to every obligation, we appeal to you with all the earnestness within us and with every assurance of success.

Make your check payable to "Leonard Hall" and forward same by February 15th to Mr. Wm. Meverell Loker, Leonardtown, Md., who will see to its proper delivery.

We are, most respectfully yours,
B. Harris Camalier,
Francis F. Greenwell,
L. J. Sterling,
Enoch B Abell,
Wm. Meverell Loker.

Your Eyes.

I will be in Leonardtown again for one day only on Tuesday, March 2nd at Mr. Charley Foxwell's with a good line of glasses and in all styles. This will be my last trip until middle of summer. Any one desiring to have optical work done and can't make it convenient to get here, and wanting me to call at their home, should write me.
