Local, Personal and Otherwise

Have You answered to the Roll Call of the Red Cross? It is your duty to do so.

Mr. Elmer Tippett, of Washington, spent a couple of days last week with his parents in Medley's Neck.

Remember the Annual Thanksgiving Ball of the Alumnae of St. Mary's Academy, at the Town Hall, November 25th.

Hog cholera is reported to exist on the premises of Steve Bodner, near Park Hall, and Herbert Combs, near Drayden.

Mr. Joseph Goldsborough, of Baltimore, visited his parents near this city during the week, and enjoyed the opening of the hunting season.

The entertainment at St. Mary's Academy on Tuesday evening last was largely attended, despite the inclement weather, and proved an enjoyable affair.

The Clerk of the Circuit Court has issued to date 666 County, 13 State Wide and 14 Non Resident Hunting License for the season which opened November 10.

Mr. Joseph M. Mattingly was elected President of the St. Mary's Tobacco Growers Associrtion, on November 13. Owing to lack of space we are unable to publish a report of this very interesting meeting.

The remains of Edgar S. Somerville, who departed this life November 13th, at his late residence in Baltimore, were brought to St. Mary's and interred in St. Andrews Cemetery, on Tuesday last.

A Supper will be held at Hotel Leonardtown on Tuesday, November 23d, for the benefit of St. Paul's M. E. church. Oysters, Chicken Salad and Country Ham will be served, commencing a 6 o'clock.

The Fourth Annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross is now on, and the drive for membership which will be in full swing by Monday, should and will meet with a patriotic responce. All should help this great and deserving cause.

First National Bank Robbery.

Some time during the night of Friday, the 12th inst., or the morning of Saturday, 13th inst., yeggmen entered the First National Bank of St. Mary's, this city, and completely rifled the Safety Deposit Boxes, rented by individuals in the vault. Entrance to the building was easily made through one of the windows on the South side of the Bank, which was only fastened by an ordinary window lock, as no valuables were accessable outside of the vault. The vault was entered by the use of an acetyline blow pipe, or torch, which was applied at a point on the door opposite the lock bolt, which was of hard steel about one half an inch thick and an inch or more in width, which controlled the side and end bolts, and this bolt was completely melted, leaving the other bolts at easy working by the hand latch. Within the vault were a set of sheet iron Safe Deposit boxes, with private lock and key, held by the renter. The boxes in this metal frame were wrenched assunder with an iron "Jimmy," which with a suit of mechanists overhault fitting a small sized man, and well worn, with a pair of heat and gass goggles in the pocket, were found on the desk in the main building, by the Clerks, upon encering the building to open up for the day's work about 9 o'clock, a. m., not until which time the robbery was detected. The Bank officials immediately got into communication with the Maryland Casualty Insurance Company, in which it held policies of Insurance to the amount of $60,000, and the Banker's Protective Association, representatives of both of which institutions did not reach the scene until about 5 30 p. m., on Saturday.

The Deposit boxes were opened and everything of value, except some silverware and jewelry were perloined. The burglar proof safe in the vault, which contained the Bank funds and securaties, with Safe Deposit accounts, withstood the ingenuity of the robbers, and regular depositors will sustain no loss.

The Box Renters, so far, have reported losses aggregating $20,850.00; principally in Government Bonds,—there being $6,400 is registered and $12,900 in coupon Bonds and W. S. S., ane $1,550 in Postage Stamps held by Leonardtown Postoffice.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Bank, held on Wednesday last, the Cashier formally reported the Bank Robbery and that the Vice-President and Wm. M. Loker, a director and Attorney, had visited the Federal Bond Department at Washington and had reported that the Registered Bonds lost would be protected, but that is was difficult to give an accurate answer about the coupon bonds. The cashier also reported that the Insurance Company had declined to recognize any liability for loss of contents of Safe Deposit Boxes. The Board passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Bank offer a reward of $2,000 for the apprehension and conviction of the person of persons who robbed the Bank; and that the best legal talent, in conjunction with our local Attorney, be employed at once to give a written opinign as to the liability of the Maryland Casualty Co. for losses it Deposit Boxes, and as to the legal relationship existing between the Bank and the Box Renters and the legal liability of the Bank to Box Renters, and, in case the Bonding or Insurance Co. is not liable, to ascertain whether or not, the Bank ca n legally make good the losses of Box Renters."

Election

Is over and most people seem to be happy, but that will not save your eyes. If they need attention don't neglect them. Thousands of people today are blind who could have prevented it, had they looked after them in time. I will be in Leonardtown again for one day, on Tuesday, December 14th, at Mr. Charlie Foxwell's, and will be glad to work and do my best for any one having trouble with their eyes.
