sealed with the officers proper seal, that said Notary, Judge or Magistrate, is the officer such as his signature and seal describe him to be.

Section 3.— And be it further enacted and ordained, that the compensation of said Agents shall respectively begin with the date upon which they take charge of the trust; and shall be two thousand five hundred dollars ($2.500;) per annum for each of the Agents selected from Baltimore, and twelve hundred and fifty dollars ($1250.) for the Agent selected from New Orleans; payable quarterly out of the funds devised by the Commissioners appointed under the Will of the late John McDonogh, the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, from the proceeds of the McDonogh Bequest, and may be deducted by said Agents from the monies coming into their hands on said account, to be noted as such in their semi-annual account.

Section 4.— And be it further enacted and ordained, that in case of the death, resignation, or failure to bond in time, (say within thirty days after the appointment having been made,) of either or all of the Agents, then the Mayor shall, immediately thereafter, nominate a successor or successors, as provided for in the first Section of this Ordinance, if the Council be in regular or special session, and if it be during the recess of the Council, then the Mayor shall immediately convene the City Council, and said Mayor and City Council shall proceed to fill such vacancy or vacancies in the manner providing for the appointment of said Agents in the first Section of this Ordinance.