the Marshal or Deputy Marshal, from the Captains, or from any other source, and to which the city may be entitled - shall draw up the monthly reports of the Marshal, and act generally as clerk to the Marshal at his office and under his direction; and shall enter in a book to be kept for that purpose, all complaints lodged at the office against the Police or against any other parties for breaches of duty or violations of ordinances or laws, together with the name and residence of the person or persons so complaining. And there shall be appointed annually, as other city officers are, a Deputy Marshal, who shall assist the Marshal in the execution of his duties, under his directions; and in case of the sickness or absence of the Marshal, the said Deputy shall take his place; and he shall give bond to the said Mayor and City Council, in the sum of two thousand dollars, ($2,000.00) with sufficient sureties to be approved by the Mayor, for the faithful performance of the duties of his office.

Section 5. - And be it further enacted and ordained, that two Captains shall be annually appointed for each police district, in the same manner that other city officers now are; and the Marshal shall assign one of said Captains for duty between the hours of six A. M. and six P. M., and the other for duty between the hours of six P. M. and six A. M. or for such other hours of alternate duty as he may deem proper; the said Captains shall, during their respective hours of service, have the general charge of the station house and of the Police District, and of its Police arrangements; and there shall be no time, either by night or by day, when the proper Captain, or, in case of his necessary absence, then
